Miss Harrell—Mr. Madden Pledge Vows In Baptist Church Sunday

Miss Hazel Lynne Harrell became the bride of Mark Lee Madden on Sunday, August 15, at 5:00 p.m., in the Raeford First Baptist Church. The Rev. Billy C. Beaver and the Rev. Mack Musselwhite officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert L. Harrell and the late Robert L. Harrell of Raeford, and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Madden of Raeford.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Glenn Langdon, organist, and Lester Southern, vocalist, who sang "That's The Way," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The church was adorned with a mixture of pink carnations, lavender astromeria lilies, pink snapdragons, lavender chrysanthemums, pink variegated miniature carnations and white snapdragons.

Two large arrangements were used on the two nine-branched candelabra and in an arrangement in the baptistry. The traditional prie-dieu with flowered garland was flanked by a pair of fifteen-branched candelabra intertwined with flowered garland. Two seven-branched candelabra with greenery also complimented the altar area.

A garland of greenery with white wedding bows and streamers was used to adorn the choir area. The couple signified their union by lighting the trinity candelabra intertwined with greenery. Reserved pews for the family were marked with hurricane globes centered in an arrangement of snapdragons, miniature carnations and pom poms carrying out the wedding motif. An arrangement of pink rubium lilies, pink carnations, and corkscrew willow was placed in the vestibule on an antique table belonging to the bride's mother and accented by a single taper.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride wore a formal gown with white dacron organza featuring a Queen Onne neckline, fitted bodice and Bishop sleeves all lavishly decorated with Alencon lace and pearls. The gown featured a Cathedral train with attached ruffled pleated organza accented by Alencon lace. The matching full brim hat adorned with pleated organza lace and Alencon lace was decorated with a pickup side with attached silk flowers and French netting.

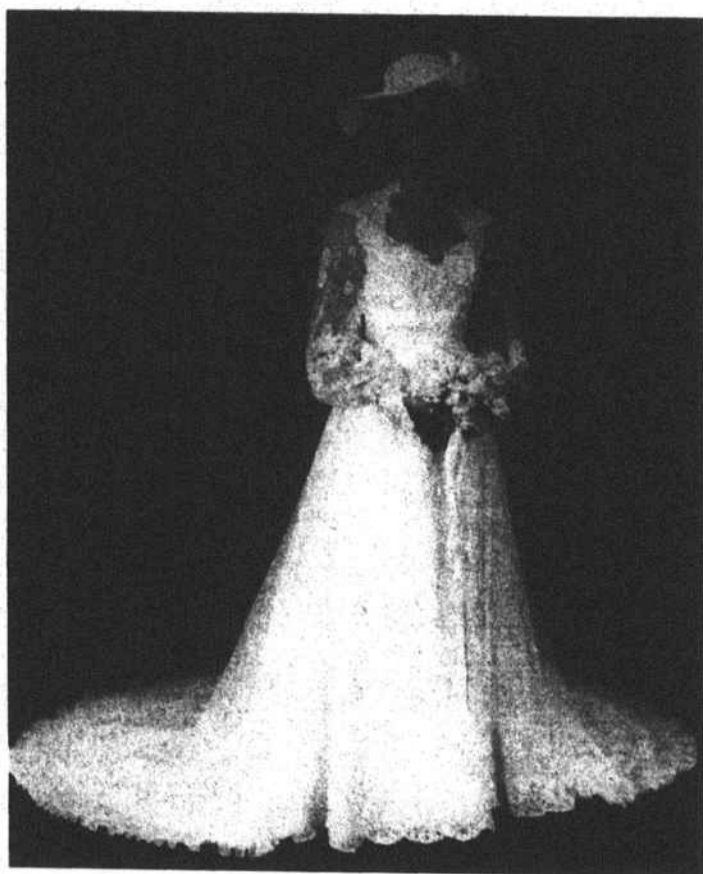

She carried a cascading bouquet of six cattleya orchids white with lavender throats, surrounded by a dozen pink bridal roses and gypsophila and trimmed with white satin bridal ribbon and love knot streamers.

Mrs. Yvonne Harrell, sister-in-law of the bride, of Southern Pines, served as matron of honor. She wore a pink underskirt gown with white chiffon overdress accented by ruffled flounce attached to the on or off the shoulder bodice. The natural waistline was accented by a silk flower. Her headpiece was a heather wreath interlaced with pearl babies' breath trimmed with a two tone satin ribbon. She carried a cascading bouquet of lavender astromeria lilies, pink rubium lilies, pink bridal roses, gypsophila, and springer trimmed with pink lace and streamers.

Bridesmaids were Leslie and Lisa Madden, sisters of the bridegroom, Raeford; Betsy Stubbs, Lumberton; Angie Breeden, Laurinburg; Sarah Hughes, Morehead City; Wanda Douglas, cousin of the bride, Florida. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns like that of the matron of honor except in the color of lavender. They carried cascading bouquets of pink rubium lilies, lavender astromeria lilies, gypsophila, springer, and lavender lace streamers.

Best man was James Madden, father of the bridegroom. Ushers were Greg Davis, Stephen Knox, Donald Calloway, Phillip Manning and Kevin Davis.

Flower girls were Mandy Harrell, niece of the bride of Southern Pines and Wendy Wood of Raeford. They wore gowns featuring an on or off the shoulder neckline accented with a ruffled band and self fabric flowers. The skirt featured a full flounce at the hemline. The matching headpieces were a band of pink silk flowers adorned with greenery and pink satin ribbon and bows. They carried white fireside baskets trimmed with a pink lace bow and streamers filled with pink rose petals.

Mrs. Mark Lee Madden

The junior bride was Lesley Harrell, niece of the bride of Southern Pines. She wore a Chantilly lace gown featuring a fitted bodice with a V-neckline and fitted sleeves. The gown skirt featured a tier on tier Chantilly lace with attached Chapel train. Her headpiece featured a full brim hat covered in Chantilly lace and satin ribbon with pickup on one side adorned with silk flowers and greenery. She carried a bouquet identical to that of the bride except smaller. The junior groom was Michael Hedgpeth. He wore an identical tux like that of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of Beet Chiffon fashioned with spaghetti straps and a natural waist bodice, with a full circular skirt, and a matching chiffon jacket with long sleeves and a small ruffle down the front and on the cuffs. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother wore a formal gown of mauve chiffon, round neck and elbow length sleeves with tucks on the bodice and sleeves. A softly gathered skirt with tucks on the hemline tied with a satin sash. She also wore a white orchid corsage.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, the couple will be at home in Raeford.

The bride is a graduate of Flora MacDonald Academy and will attend Fayetteville Technical Institute in the fall.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke High School and Pembroke State University with a B.S. in Sociology. He is employed with UCB in Fayetteville.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the wedding a reception was given by the bride's mother at the bride and groom's home on 423 East Edinborough. The table was covered with a lace cloth and beautifully decorated in white, pink and lavender and pink candles. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Ransom Baucom and Mrs. Betty Knox. The punch was served by Mrs. Sara Grinstead, and Mrs. Helen Tutor. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stogner received at the door and Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Wood Jr. said goodbyes.

LUNCHEON

POST-REHEARSAL DINNER

Following the rehearsal a pig-picking dinner was given for the members of the wedding party, and out-of-town guests at the Pittman Grove Church. Hosting the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. James L. Madden.

The tables were covered with white cloths and centered with lined baskets filled with babies' breath.

BRIDESMAID LUNCHEON

A bridesmaid luncheon was given for Lynne Harrell, Saturday, August 14 at the home of Mrs. John Thomas Haire. Mrs. Rosa Cole, Mrs. Virginia Harrell, and Mrs. Emma Hardin were co-hostesses.

Upon arrival the honoree was given a corsage of pink rose buds. The brides table was centered with an arrangement of mixed summer flowers. Rose arrangements were used throughout the house.

A delicious meal of ham, potato salad, green beans, congealed salad, biscuits, tea, and homemade ice cream was served to the seventeen guests present. Special guest was the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Lula Tutor of Vero Beach, Florida.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a cup and saucer in her chosen china pattern.
