Miss Tucker, Mr. Frahm Wed In Catholic Ceremony Here

Miss Teresa Carol Tucker became the bride of Reginald Joseph Frahm on Sunday, August 22, at 2:00 p.m., the Saint Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church. Father Thomas Sanford officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Tucker of Raeford, and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Ms. Leonard G. Frahm of Raeford.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Beth Wood, organist, and Miss Amy Hemmens, vocalist, who sang "The Lord's Prayer". Other nuptial selections included "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring", Bach and "Largo", Handel.

The church was decorated with two large arrangements of blue daisies, white snapdragons, blue carnations, white gladiola, white mums and gypsophila in white wedding baskets. One fourteen-branch candelabra and two seven-branch candelabra with greenery and a wedding bow also complimented the altar area. Palms and ferns completed the setting. Miniature carnations and blue daisies with white wedding bows reserved pews for the family. At the register was a bud vase of blue miniature carnations, white sweetheart roses, white daisies, white status and gypsophila.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown with white organza and racheal lace trim featuring a high neckline, fitted bodice of reembroidered chantilly lace and seed pearls with a sheer yolk and an A-line skirt. The gown featured a chapel length train bordered with lace and a pleated flounce skirt. She wore a full brim picture hat of chantilly lace, seed pearls, with attached silk flowers and French netting. She wore a comb of baby blue verbenia in her hair.

She carried a cascading bouquet of silk white and blue sweetheart roses, blue daisies, white lily of the valley surrounded by navy blue verbenia and gypsophila with lace streamers tied with love knots and lily of the valley.

Miss Sandy Tucker, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a formal white and navy cotton voile gown with a fitted bodice featuring a high neckline with a sheer yolk. The navy bell skirt was accented with appliques printed on and a navy cummerbund. She wore a cluster of navy blue verbenia in her hair. She carried a fireside basket of silk white and blue sweetheart roses, blue daisies, white lily of the valley, navy verbenia and gypsophila with lace streamers.

Honorary bridesmaids were Cindy Frahm, Krisit Posey, Vicki Jones, sisters of the bridegroom, Gail Frahm, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Suzanne Ramsey, sister of the bride, Raeford, and Julia Anne Tucker, sister-in-law of the bride, Cheraw, South Carolina. They carried clusters of white silk roses with blue and white streamers.

Best man was Charles Richard Clark, III of Southern Pines, friend of the bridegroom. Ushers were Leslie Frahm of Raleigh, and Randy Frahm of Raeford. Jackie Frahm, brother of the bridegroom of Raleigh served as lector. The altar server was Chad Jones, nephew of the bridegroom.

Flower girl was Jaclyn Jones, niece of the bridegroom. She wore a gown of baby blue eyelet featuring an empire style waist with ruffled sleeves and neckline accented with a cummerbund. She carried a miniature fireside basket of silk white and blue sweetheart roses, blue daisies, white lily of the valley, navy blue verbenia, and gypsophila with lace streamers.

The mother of the bride wore a semi-formal gown of navy chiffon with a ruffled V-neckline and a full circular skirt with a small ruffle on the cuff. She wore a corsage of carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a semi-formal blue floral print chiffon over taffeta. She also wore a corsage of carnations.

After a wedding trip to the coast of North Carolina and Charleston, S.C., the couple will be at home in Raeford.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and Pembroke State University with a B.A. in English

Education. She is employed with Hoke County school system.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke High School and also attended Pembroke State University. He is employed with Croft Metals in Lumber Bridge.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding a reception was given by the bride's parents at their home. The table was covered with a linen embroidered tablecloth and centered with an arrangement of blue miniature carnations, white sweetheart roses, white daisies, white status, gypsophila. The wedding cake was decorated with white sweetheart roses, blue miniature carnations, gypsophila.

The wedding cake was served by Mrs. C.T. McGee and Mrs. James Davis. The punch was served by Mrs. Nancy Payne and Mrs. Heddie Floyd. Mr. and Mrs. William Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tucker received at the door. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Posey and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ramsey said goodbyes.

BRIDESMAID LUNCHEON

A bridesmaid luncheon was given for Terri Tucker, Saturday August 21, at the home of Mrs. W.T. Gibson. Upon arrival the honoree was given a corsage of daisies.

The bride's table was covered with an Irish linen embroidered tablecloth and centered with a mixed arrangement of daisies and mums. Rose arrangements were used throughout the home.

A delicious meal consisted of chicken salad, mushroom tarts, lima beans, peaches, and a coconut custard.

The honoree presented gifts to her bridesmaids and gifts of sachet to other guests.

POST-REHEARSAL DINNER

Following the rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Leonard G. Frahm entertained the members of the wedding party and family members with a dinner at the Edenborough Restaurant. The tables were covered with white cloths and centered with an arrangement of blue carnations, white daisies, white status, and gypsophila. The tables were centered with garlands of greenery and blue candles.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the rehearsal dinner the bridal couple was entertained with a rehearsal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Posey. Members of the wedding party, family, and friends attended. Guests enjoyed refreshments of cheese balls, cheese biscuits, a chipped beef log, sausage balls and drinks.

COKE PARTY

Miss Terri Tucker was honored on August 20 with a Coke party at the home of Mrs. Samuel Hendrix.

Also hosting the occasion was Mrs. Dwight Hasty of Greensboro.

Guests were invited to the dining room table for refreshments of cheese wafers, cookies, brownies and Coke.

The hostesses took pictures throughout the evening and presented them to the honoree in a photograph book. The hostesses also presented Miss Tucker with a plant.
