Miss McRae, Mr. Walters Pledge Vows In Lakeview Church Ceremony

Cheryl Ann McRae of Vass was married to Michael Leroy Walters of Raeford in the Lakeview Presbyterian Church August 29 at 4 p.m. by the Rev. J.B. Helms, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McRae of Vass. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Walters of Raeford. Music for the ceremony was by Ron Glover, organist and Bob Glover, vocalist who sang, "God, Woman and Man" and "We Made It Happen" while the mothers and grandmother were seated and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

The church was decorated with arrangements of lavender and white assorted spring flowers flanked by brass candelabra which was centered with lavender and white assorted flowers. The windows were draped with miniature ivy centered with candles. Mrs. Helen Edwards registered the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length dress of baby blue chiffon. The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of sea green chiffon. Each wore white rose corsages and Mrs. Viola Fulk, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a peach colored floor length gown with a daisy corsage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white silk organza, and reembroidered Alencon lace, accented with seed pearls. The fitted bodice featured a sheer yoke of English net, and a high neckline. The sheer bishop sleeves were appliqued with Alencon lace. The cuffs were of Brussels lace with ruffles at the wrist. The semi-fitted skirt had a flounce of Brussels lace at the hemline extending into a chapel train. The mantilla was waltz length silk illusion with a lavish border of Alencon lace and accented with seed pearls. The mantilla was worn over a matching lace Juliet cap. She carried a modified cascading silk bouquet of white roses, white stephanitis, white daisies, lily of the valley and mixed greenery.

Maid of honor was Miss Sandra Russell of Pinebluff. She wore a floor length lavender gown. Mrs. Linda McRae, sister-in-law of the bride, of Vass, Tammy Ranno of Raeford and Miss Pearl Albright of Siler City were bridesmaids. They were also dressed in lavender gowns. They all wore halos of baby's breath. They carried modified cascades of lavender and white assorted silk flowers with white ribbons.

Flower girl was Miss Monica Collins, niece of the bridegroom, of Raeford. She wore a floor length dress of white eyelet with tiny lavender flowers. The dress was cinderella style. She wore a halo of tiny lavender silk flowers and carried a white basket trimmed with lavender bows.

Miss Rebecca Walters of Raeford, Mrs. Denise Whitaker of Raeford, Mrs. Rochelle Collins of Raeford, Mrs. Eileen Strickland of Raeford and Lorraine McDiarmid of Durham, all sisters of the bridegroom were honorary bridesmaids. They wore orchid colored floor length gowns. They carried long stem white silk roses with greenery and white ribbons.

Mrs. Michael Leroy Walters

Rice girl was Miss Susan Frye of Vass. She wore a pink floor length dress and a corsage of white silk daisies.

Best man was Archie L. Walters, father of the bridegroom. Alan Walters, brother of the bridegroom, of Raeford, John David McRae, brother of the bride of Vass and Ricky Bowen, cousin of the bridegroom, of Aberdeen were ushers. They were attired in pearl gray tuxedos.

Ring bearer was Jonathan McRae, nephew of the bride, of Vass. He carried a pillow of white satin which contained the bride and groom's wedding rings. He also wore a pearl gray tuxedo.

A reception was held at the Sheraton Inn Convention Center in Southern Pines. The buffet table was decorated with lavender ribbons edging the white skirts and each corner accented with lavender bows. Floral arrangements were of white and lavender assorted flowers.

The bride's table held a four tier wedding cake, white with lavender flowers. Punch from a crystal bowl, and nuts, mints, bell shaped finger sandwiches, sausage balls, cheese balls and crackers and cheese straws were served. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Helen Edwards Mrs. Doris Laubscher, Mrs. Ruth McRae and Mrs. Dera McRae, aunts of the bride.

After a trip to the beach, the couple will make their home in Raeford. The bride is a graduate of Union Pines High School and Pembroke State University. The groom is a graduate of Hoke County High School. He is employed by Aberdeen Coca-Cola
