Hoke High Runner Wins At Hendersonville

Hoke High's Paul Hunt won first place in the Hendersonville Apple Festival Road Race on Saturday in Hendersonville, North Carolina.

Hunt, running in the 5K (3.1 mile) race placed first in the 15-18-year-old age division. He completed the hill-studded course in a time of 16:40 to place seventh over-all in a field of 411 runners. Four junior members of the IEA Road Runners also competed in the 5K race. Allen Jacobs finished 60th overall and received an award for his 3rd place finish in the 14 and under age division. Ricky Chavis, Robert Jacobs and Don M. Woods, Jr., also ran with the team. The team will compete this weekend in the Lancaster, S.C., Road Race 10K and one-mile races.

Long Wins Over-all Cub Regatta Trophy

Michael Long won the over-all trophy for the Sailboat Regatta held Thursday night at Raeford United Methodist Church for Cub Pack 404.

Twenty-eight boats, each assembled and decorated by a different Cub, competed in the regatta in three age divisions. Long also won the event for 9-year-olds.

The other winners and the runnersup in each age group were: 9-year-olds: Shayne McDonald, second.

8-year-olds: first -- Ryan Clark, and second -- Tom Wright.

10-year-olds: first -- Damon Dockery, and second -- Scott Edwards.

Modern Art Seminar

Offered By St. Andrews

A seminar in modern art, led by James Linehan, is being offered this fall at St. Andrews Presbyterian College at Laurinburg.

The course, taught on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30, will investigate the art of the 20th century. The study of art criticism and aesthetics will be integral to the chronological analysis of art created during this period. The art department also is offering two courses in drawing. Interested persons can register by mail or at the office of the associate dean for academic development. For more information call 276-3652 (ext. 233)
