

Area Incidents

Cash, Tools Stolen

The following were reported recently to the Hoke County Sheriff's Department.

Harold Cashon, Rt. 1, Lumber Bridge, reported Monday a man gave an $80 "payroll check" at Handy Stop at Dundarrach, after getting $5 worth of gas. The man was given $75 change and endorsed the check, which bore the name B&S Services, Rt. 4, Fayetteville.

Later it was learned the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department had a misdemeanor warrant for larceny of blank checks from Thomas Stroud of Cumberland County. The warrant charged the man who had cashed the check at the Handy Stop.

Hoke deputies arrested the man at his residence and turned him over to the Red Springs Police Department.

Chester Bryant McNulty, Rt. 2, Raeford, reported September 7 someone broke into his mobile home on SR 1422 and stole a $70 cassette recorder and $25 in cash. On September 4 he reported someone stole a lawnmower and tools worth a total of $1,160 from his property.

Mrs. Frank McFadyen, Raeford, reported someone stole a $100 clothes washer and a $60 table from her mobile home between September 6 and 9.

Someone on September 9 or 10 stole four tires, four rims, a CB radio, a regular radio, and speakers from Jerry's Auto Repair garage on Rubber Road.

Someone on September 9 or 10 broke into Samuel Melvin Jr.'s, garage on Rt. 12, Fayetteville, and stole $1,679 worth of tools and tool boxes, and a $200 battery charger.

Someone broke into the parts area of Correctional Enterprises at McCain Hospital September 8 or 9 and stole a floor jack worth $173.17 and two lawn mowers worth $298.79 in all.

Raeford Police Chief Leonard Wiggins reported his department received the following reports.

James Long, 422 W. Prospect Ave., reported a 12,000 BTU air conditioner missing from his yard. He said it had been on a dog box last time he saw it. The air conditioner was valued at $200.

Annie Jackson of 121 Stewart St. reported Sunday the license plate sticker bearing the year number was discovered missing. It is valued at $16.

Selena M. Livingston, 204 Adams St., reported Sunday a wallet containing $62.75 was taken from her purse, which was worth $7. The wallet was recovered later, and William Joseph Charles, Jr., of 1152 Ratley Acres, was charged with larceny.

PUTTING ON THE DOG -- Peanut, a 10-year-old Chihuahua, is sporting the latest in cool weather wear he was given recently by his folks, Maybelle and Norman Benton of Rt. 1, Raeford. Benton bought the hat and coat for $1.50 altogether at a yard sale in Wagram August 28. Mrs. Benton is holding Peanut. The pooch has 25 other coats, which the Bentons paid $8 to $9 for each. Peanut's daddy, Tippy, who is 18 years old, has his own wardrobe of 15 coats. Peanut can't share his coats with dad because, Mrs. Benton explained, Tippy is fatter than Peanut. This picture was taken Monday afternoon.

Rockfish News

by Polly Barnard

There was good attendance at Galatia Presbyterian Church the past Sunday morning. There was congregational meeting following the worship service.

Sub-district leaders meeting of the United Methodist Women met at Culbreth United Methodist Church in Fayetteville Sunday afternoon, September 12th at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Nan Hayward Sub-district leader and several other women from Sandy Grove Church attended. Mrs. Mina Townsend in charge of the program which was very informative. Little Jason Swann recently celebrated his third birthday with a party in the Fellowship Hall of Pittman Grove Baptist Church. Games were played and Mrs. Susie Ellis played the part of a clown for special entertainment, which was concluded with a clown pinata. Fifteen children and several adults attended. A clown birthday cake was served with ice cream. Everyone had a real good time.

A group of youth and several adults enjoyed a skating party at Bodeau in Fayetteville just prior to school beginning. They had the pleasure of seeing ex-president Jimmy Carter and his entourage as he arrived for the fund raising dinner in his honor the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson and children, Paul and Lillian of Emporia, Virginia spent the weekend recently with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard went to Southport fishing Friday of the past week.

Little Justin Sakobie of Hope Mills spent Friday night and Saturday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard.

Miss Katie Black of the Galatia Community entered Duke Hospital the past Sunday for surgery.

Mrs. E.T. Brock, Jr. who was admitted to Cape Fear Valley Hospital with pneumonia, Tuesday September 7th hopes to be released soon.

Mrs. Pauline Kennedy of Fayetteville visited her sister, Mrs. Amos Grant, Jr., Mr. Grant and family the past Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Kennedy had been on the sick list recently but is getting along much better at this time.

Mrs. Ozell Hester was admitted to Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh Tuesday of this week for tests and possibly surgery.

The response to "Open House" at Chicks Ceramics on Rockfish-Raeford Road last week was very good. There were door prizes and drawings for several other prizes. If you missed it Mrs. Elizabeth Jones invites you to come by and see the new expansion and work space at the shop. They are also beginning Christmas items.

Thomas McCall and son-in-law, "Butch" Posey and Billy Posey went to Holden Beach fishing the past Saturday. They had a good trip however, the fish were not biting too well.

Miss Becky Plummer who was formerly employed in Rocky Mount, has recently accepted a job in the Fayetteville area and is happy to be nearer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Plummer, Miss Becky Plummer of Fayetteville, John Plummer of Enterprise, Alabama, Mrs. Joan Crawford and daughter, Maggie of Raeford spent a weekend recently with Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Wilson at their mountain place.

The community extends welcome to Mrs. Janice Pratt and daughter, Melissa who recently moved from Spring Lake to Kirkland Drive in Rockfish. Melissa is twelve and a student in Junior High school in Raeford.

Am happy to report Mrs. Harmon Lindsay of the Wayside community has recovered from a recent illness.

Let us all remember the many among us who are ill and pray for their recovery.

Young Demos Meet Monday At 7:30 P.M.

An organizational meeting of Young Democrats in Hoke County will be held Monday, September 20, 1982, 7:30 p.m. at the Hoke County Courthouse.

All registered Young Democrats (18-35) are urged to attend.

WAGON WHEEL RESTAURANT
THURSDAY & FRIDAY
SHRIMP BASKET
(about 20 shrimp)
with FF, Slaw & Hushpuppies
$3.99
Take Out Orders Call 875-6762

LESLIE'S GARAGE & WRECKER SERVICE

Sun. Engine Tune-Up This month only
$30.95
MOST 4-CYL. AMER. CARS
$32.95 MOST 6-CYL. AMER. CAR
$35.95 8-CYL. AMER. CAR

Expires Oct. 1, 1982
ELECTRONIC IGNITION SYSTEMS
Install NEW resistor plugs. Adjust carburetor and idle speed. Set timing. Test battery and charging system. Inspect rotor, distributor cap, PCV valve, ignition cables, air filter, crankcase vent filter, and vapor canister filter.
$5 EXTRA FOR STANDARD IGNITION

875-4078

107 S. MAIN

Nights Dial 875-4775

RAEFORD

Deaths & Funerals

Edward M. Jackson

The funeral for Edward Milton Jackson, 41, was conducted Sunday afternoon at Parkton Baptist Church. Burial was in Parkton Cemetery.

Mr. Jackson died Saturday. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Carol A. Jackson; his son, Edward M. Jackson of the home; his father, Eugene Jackson; and his sisters, Mrs. Betty Jean Inman of Lumberton, and Mrs. Faye Booth of Raeford.

Crumpler Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Sadie McCain

Graveside services for Mrs. Sadie Lou McCain, once active in Hoke County politics and widow of Dr. Paul Pressley McCain, for whom McCain Hospital was named, were held September 3 in the cemetery of Old Bethesda Presbyterian Church at Aberdeen.

Mrs. McCain died September 2 at the age of 88 in Wilson, where she had been living since 1957.

She lived in McCain for many years till shortly after her husband was killed in a traffic accident in 1946. At the time he was superintendent of the state sanatoria system. Mrs. McCain's father, Dr. Lewis Burgin McBrayer, had served as superintendent of the North Carolina Sanatorium at McCain till he was succeeded by Dr. McCain. Later, the name North Carolina Sanatorium was changed to its present McCain Hospital.

Mrs. McCain was a native of Asheville. While living in Hoke County she once served as vice chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee during Gov. J. Melville Broughton's administration, and was a member of the Hoke County Democratic Executive Committee.

A daughter-in-law, Betty McCain, served for several years as state Democratic chairman till a few years ago. Betty McCain is the wife of Dr. John Lewis McCain, a Wilson physician.

Mrs. Sadie McCain also was named North Carolina Mother of the Year in 1945. She was for several years dean of women at Flora Macdonald College at Red Springs, was a former member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Consolidated University of North Carolina, and a former president of the Alumnae Association of the Women's College of UNC at Greensboro (now UNC at Greensboro).

She also had served on the Board of the State TB Sanatoria System and was a life member of the Tryon Palace Board. Mrs. McCain also had been a president of the Fayetteville Presbytery and was the first woman elected an elder of First Presbyterian Church of Wilson.

Surviving in addition to Dr. McCain are her daughter, Mrs. Sara Louise McCain McCollum of Eden; and Mrs. Jane Todd Reagen; and nine grandchildren. Mrs. Reagen and her husband, John, are serving as Presbyterian missionaries in Tokyo, Japan.

Mrs. McCain had two other children but they preceded her in death. Her son Paul Jr. was lost over the English channel during the Normandy invasion of June 1944 while serving as a navigator on an Air Force plane that was shot down. Her daughter Dr. Irene McFarland died of a coronary in 1962. She was a psychiatrist on the staff of the After-Care Clinic in Wilson at the time.

Isadore H. Odom

St. Pauls -- Mrs. Isadore Hamilton Odom, 76, died Thursday, September 9, at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberton.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. from the Second Baptist Church, conducted by the Revs. James Meacham and John Moody. Burial was in the Hamilton Family Cemetery on Route 1, Shannon.

Surviving are her husband, William Alfred Odom; one son, Willie Carl Odom of Raeford; seven daughters, Mrs. Nora Smith of Parkton, Mrs. Bonnie Pate of Raeford, Mrs. Annie Ruth Lewis, Mrs. Ruby Johnson, Mrs. Mary Register, Mrs. Flora Fisher, and Mrs. Frances Blackman, all of St. Pauls; one brother, Bleece Hamilton of Red Springs; 19 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Benjamin M. Bradin

Benjamin M. Bradin, retired Army Lieutenant Colonel, who served in Raeford in the National Guard for many years died in late July at the Fairfield Memorial Hospital in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

He had been living in Camden, South Carolina, at the time of his death.

Mr. Bradin lived in Southern Pines for a number of years and was well known in the Raeford community. He served in the Old Battery "F" National Guard Unit prior to World War II.

Born in Punta Gorda, Fla., he was a son of the late Rev. Benjamin and Edith Smith Bradin.

Mr. Bradin was retired from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and a veteran of World War II. He served with the Coast Artillery and later with the Engineer Utility Detachment in the early occupation of Berlin.

He was a Mason, a member of the Scottish Rite and was very active with the Boy Scouts.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Marion Brown of Columbia; a son, Col. James Watson Bradin of Charleston; eight grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at Grace Episcopal Church, with burial in Quaker Cemetery.

The family suggests that those who wish may make memorials to Grace Episcopal Church and the Episcopal Home for Children at York.

College News

Debra Lynn Shockley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shockley of Raeford, has been selected as a Pembroke State University cheerleader for the 1982-83 school year.

She competed against 17 other girls in the event and finished tied for third of the 10 who were selected.

Miss Shockley is a sophomore majoring in biology in preparing for a career as a medical technologist.

Two Hoke Women Get UNC Degrees

Two Hoke County residents were among summer graduates at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Pamela Kay Page received a Master of Education degree, and Kathy Diane Williams was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree.

Hoke Heart Association Officers Elected

The Hoke County Heart Association held an organizational meeting September 9 at the Hoke County Public Library to plan for the 1982-83 Campaign.

Emma J. Mims, principal of Turlington Elementary School, was elected president. Other officers elected include: Carol Page, secretary; Mrs. Barbara Lippard, treasurer; Mrs. Marth Lundy, education chairman; and Anna H. Jordan, public information chairman.

Plans were discussed for the upcoming year with Mrs. Esther Temple, field consultant for the North Carolina Heart Association. For the first time in several years the Hoke County Heart Association will be a fulltime, all-volunteer organization.

The association will be able to place more emphasis on education and support services provided through the American Heart Association. Miss Mims stated, "We want to do more to inform the public of Hoke County of diseases of the heart and blood vessels, and the prevention programs supported by the Heart Association. Mrs. Martha Lundy has worked many years with education of heart diseases, and will be a valuable asset in this area."

In other business, Miss Mims presented awards and certificates from the North Carolina Heart Association for the 1981-82 Fund-raising Campaign. The Hoke County Heart Association received the Fund-raising Achievement Award for the "Most Improved Fund-raising Performance" last year. The local units raised $11,176.06 in their annual campaign.

Miss Mims and Anna Jordan received the Achievement Recognition Award, the fourth highest for individual service given by the North Carolina Heart Association. It is given to volunteers who have continued dedicated service to the administrative, fund-raising, public relations or medical and community programs of the Unit.

The Founder's Award, the fifth highest for individual service, was given to Mrs. Delia McNeill, Mrs. Joyce Griffin, Mrs. Betsy Collins and Susan Blackman for sustained service in Heart Fund programs for several years.

Heart Pins were given to Mrs. Barbara Lippard and Mrs. Betty Upchurch for their work throughout the year.

Certificates of Appreciation were presented for outstanding work during the fund-raising campaign to the following: Jimmy Wood, Jan Dial, Kathy Hendrix, Jessie Dupree, Danny McGougan, Mazelle Connell, Steve Phillips, Robert Calhoun, Elma Page, Grace MacDonald and Becky Sutton.

The Hoke County Tennis Association received the Outstanding Achievement Award for Clubs and Organizations.

Earlier in the year, The News-Journal received the William G. Cole Award for outstanding contribution to the cause of Heart during 1981-82.

Drew Wood In 'Outstanding' Group

Andrew McLean (Drew) Wood III of Raleigh, grandson of Jewel S. Klouse, has been chosen for membership in "Outstanding Young Men of America" for 1982, "in recognition of outstanding professional achievement, superior leadership ability and exceptional service to the community," the certificate awarded to him says.

The certificate bears the signature of Doug Blankenship, chairman of the OYM of A Board of Advisors.

He is the son of Mrs. Judy Klouse Thompson and Andy Wood of Raleigh. Drew Wood completed Broughton High School in 1966, playing in the North Carolina-South Carolina Shrine Bowl football game which North Carolina won that year. He attended Appalachian State University at Boone on a football scholarship.

On August 8, 1970, he and Andrea Calhoun were married in Sacred Heart Cathedral in Raleigh, returned to Appalachian and graduated together. They have two children: Samantha, 6½, and Kyle, 5.

Drew Wood and his wife work for the state, he in the Budget Division and she in the ABC Division, and live in Raleigh's historic Oakwood section.

Drew has a sister, Vikki Jewel Olson. She and her husband, Matthew, live in her mother's home on Radcliff Road, Raleigh.

Bordeaux Dinner Theatre
Bordeaux Motor Inn
Village & Owen Drives • Fayetteville
Wed. thru Sun. Evenings
Music, Dance Magic And Puppets In...
CARNIVAL
AMERICA'S MAGICAL MUSICAL
Music and Lyrics by BOB MERRILL Book by MICHAEL STEWART Based on Material by BOB MERRILL MICHAEL STEWART HELEN DEUTSCH
Resv. 223-1114
Box Office Open Noon-8 p.m. Daily
Senior Citizen, Student and Group Discounts

Raeford Playschool Child Care
from 6 weeks
Pre-School Program for 3 and 4 year olds
• Certified Teacher
• Hot Lunch • Snacks
• Drop-Ins Welcome
FOR INFORMATION CALL
Suzanne McGougan
875-8038
403 West Donaldson