State Fair Is Bargain

While inflation has eaten away at the pockets of most North Carolina Citizens, the 1982 North Carolina State Fair is still the best entertainment bargain around, particularly if fairgoers plan ahead. Reduced prices for rides and gate admission are available for those planning to attend October 15-23 in Raleigh.

Coupon booklets and admission tickets discounts are available at any North Carolina Winn-Dixie store from September 12 through October 9, says Art Pitzer, fair manager. In addition a special ride ticket booklet which retails for $7.50 but is being sold for $5, fairgoers can purchase a regular $3 admission ticket for $2.50.

The ride ticket booklets will allow the purchaser to enjoy 12 rides for $5, a savings of about $2.50. Ride books or admission tickets can be purchased separately.

In addition to Winn-Dixie an advance ticket outlet, advance tickets will also be on sale October 1-14, 1982 at the Administration Building on the State Fairgrounds, 1025 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27607. The phone number is (919) 821-7400. Ticket office hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Parking for the State Fair is free on State Fair and Carter Stadium parking lots. Senior citizens, 65 years of age or older, will be admitted free as will children 12 and under. No refunds will be made on advance sale tickets.

Participants Being Sought For Flora Macdonald Games

The Red Springs Fire Department tug-of-war team will be trying to defend its title as champion tuggers on Sunday, Oct. 3 at 3 p.m. as part of the Flora Macdonald Highland Games activities. To date, six fire departments have entered the competition and the Games' sponsors are looking for others who would be willing to try their strength.

"We need about six more teams to make this a great competition," according to Games spokesman Tommy Ammons. "The tug-of-war was a great crowd-pleaser last year and we would like to involve some more departments." Smithson Beverage Company is co-sponsoring the tug-of-war this year, and that means prizes to the winners, according to Ammons. "Miller Beer is putting up some great incentives to participate," added Ammons. "We would like to hear from some more pullers."

To sign up for the tug-of-war, call the Games office at 843-4139. Local runners are also being sought to enter the Flora Macdonald Highland Games 10,000 meter run set for Sunday, Oct. 3 at 4:30 p.m. here.

The race is sanctioned by the North Carolina Association of the Athletic Congress of the United States and will feature trophies for the winners and T-shirts for all participants.

Last year, more than 65 runners took part in the race, the final event of the Games which drew nearly 5,000 spectators in 1981.

For more information or to enter, call the Games office at 843-4239.
