

Rockfish News

Polly Barnard is attending the World's Fair this week so I agreed to write her news column. We appreciate and enjoy her news. Have fun Polly!

We were so thankful for the nice rain Saturday night, early Sunday morning and again on Monday.

The attendance at Tabernacle Baptist Church was not as large as usual Sunday. Some were sick and there were some conflicting events.

Pittman Grove Church is conducting a Bible Study in the Book of James each Wednesday night. Rev. Mack Musselwhite is teaching and all interested persons are invited to attend.

The community extends deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Dorothy Jean Mabe whose funeral was Friday in Hope Mills. Several of her sisters and brothers live in the area and are friends of many rockfish residents. Mrs. Oscar Wood and Thomas McInnis were among those attending the funeral.

Mrs. Arthur Watson of White Lake spent a few days last week with her sisters, Mrs. Grace English and Mrs. Louise Watson. She also visited her son Phillip who is on the police force in Fayetteville.

Melvin Dees returned to Halifax, Virginia Monday for his medical check-up. His condition remains somewhat the same.

We welcome to our community Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson and children. They have bought the former Arthur Watson home and he is employed at Kelly Springfield in Fayetteville.

Congratulations to Mrs. J.W. Caddell, Sr. who celebrated her 80th birthday Sunday. She is a former resident of Rockfish (and we still claim her). Mrs. Caddell and son J.W. had birthday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Johnson. This dinner has turned into an annual affair.

Mrs. Lawrence D. Long of Fayetteville visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Long Saturday afternoon. Mr. Long is sick. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

L.B. "Bob" Bundy had the misfortune of falling at his home last Thursday. The extent of injury was not as serious as first thought. Please support him with your prayers and visits.

Nellie McFadyen spent last week in Raeford with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Baker and family.

Circle #4 of Galatia Presbyterian Church met last Tuesday at the church with eleven members present.

Bruce Dees, Mary and Wilbur, and Rev. Archie Barringer attended the State-Wake Forest game in Raleigh Saturday night. If you detected Bruce had a grin on his face Sunday. Well, you guessed it STATE (his Alma Mater) won!

Mrs. Eleanor Wooten of Raeford and Mrs. B.B. Bostic spent a few days last week at Mrs. Bostic's place at Holden Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood and son Tim of Greenville, N.C. spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Martin Wood.

The annual Bundy Family Reunion was held Sunday at Cumberland Park, Cumberland, N.C. Numerous Bundy family members from here attended but Mr. "Bob" was unable to attend due to his recent fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Emmons attended Family Day at Eastern N.C. School for the Deaf in Wilson Sunday. Larry Hayes, grandson of Mrs. Emmons is a student there. They had a picnic lunch and reported a real good day. Larry Hayes, Sr. is progressing nicely at Southeastern Rehabilitation Center in Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gaddis had as dinner guests Sunday, her mother, Mrs. Fredis Hudson of Spring Lake and her son Thomas Gaddis of Red Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Wood of Hope Mills and Mrs. Earl McKinnon of Cumberland visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koonce and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Koonce visited Mrs. Zula Martin in Bowden's Nursing Center at Wrightsville Beach last Thursday. They went especially to help Mrs. Martin celebrate her birthday which they did with cake, ice cream and all the trimmings. They found her quite alert and able to enjoy the day. Mrs. Martin is sister of Herman and Clarence. They also visited Mrs. Fred Cameron, sister of Mrs. Herman Koonce, at her home at Carolina Beach. We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Cameron is not recovering as rapidly from her stroke as had been hoped.

Mrs. Ethel Monroe and Mrs. Cleva Newton attended a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Willis. The tea was honoring Mrs. Tom McLaughlin of Raeford who will soon become a resident of the Presbyterian Home in High Point. Friends of Mrs. McLaughlin, many of them teachers with whom she had taught, were invited and Mrs. Monroe reported a most enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Claudyne Brock has been released from Cape Fear Valley Hospital and is back at work at her florist on a part time basis. She has asked that we convey, through this column, her appreciation for all cards, flowers and prayers during her confinement in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Parker visited Miss Katie Black at Duke Medical Center in Durham Sunday. Katie had surgery last Tuesday and will perhaps return home sometime this week.

Mrs. Marvin English brought her mother, Mrs. Ruth Willis of Highland Nursing Center, Fayetteville, to visit Mrs. Ethel Monroe last Wednesday. Mrs. Willis, from all reports, is doing fine.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Reynolds Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parks of Fayetteville and Buddy Willis and daughter of Raeford.

Mrs. Louise Watson visited Mrs. W.A. Fowler and Mrs. Jeannie Quick at Open Arms Rest Home in Raeford Thursday.

Mrs. Luanne Dees and Mrs. Katherine Brock have resumed their classes at Sandhills Community College. Both are pursuing Nursing careers.

Mrs. Marie Fowler and daughter Cathy, Mrs. Henrietta Tanner and David Gibson attended the Garner Family Reunion in Carthage Sunday. There was a large crowd present and all had a most enjoyable day. The former Kathleen Gibson is married to Tracy Garner. On Saturday, Mrs. Fowler and Cathy visited Oliver Powers, husband of the former Vera Fowler, at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberton. He was admitted last week to Intensive Care in critical condition.

We are sorry to report that Alex Ray is not well at all. Remember him in prayer.

Mrs. Effie Forbis of Lumber Bridge visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McColl and children Sunday. Effie had just returned from the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark of Fayetteville visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark Sunday afternoon.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. E.T. Brock Jr. Sunday were her mother, Mrs. Willie Shepherd and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Faircloth of Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Clark and children Angela, Jimmy and Beth visited his mother Mrs. Archie Clark this weekend. Jimmy and family have moved to Forrest City and he and his wife are employed at Burlington there. Little Beth remained with her grandmother for the week. Mrs. Clark had spent the week with them in Forrest City.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wood and children, Mack and Allen of Dillon, South Carolina visited Mr. and Mrs. Miller Cook this weekend. Mack was admitted to Cape Fear Valley hospital Monday with an ear infection. It has not been determined at this time if he will have surgery. Mrs. Wood will remain here with Mr. and Mrs. Cook until he is released.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

If I were you and you were me
Would we then like just what we'd see?
Each day I'd search to try to find
Some fault in your but forgetting mine
If I were you for just awhile
I hope you'd always see a smile
You'd look at what you used to be
I hope you'd like just what you'd see
Since I'm not you and you're not me
I guess we'll be just what we be
The moral is that others see
The very best - in YOU and ME!
Have a nice Day!

Raeford Still In Running For Guard Reorganization

Raeford hasn't been passed up for an additional National Guard tank company as has been reported.

The State's Guard armor organization simply is being recognized, a spokesman at the North Carolina National Guard Center said last week in reply to a reporter's question regarding the reported "bypass." The information came from a member of the staff of Maj. Gen. William E. Ingram, state adjutant general.

He said the change would add about 50 more troops to the Headquarters and Headquarters Company, Second Battalion, 252nd Armor, at Raeford, and to Hq and HQ Company, Detachment 1, at Red Springs.

But there will be no change in the number of companies -- three -- in the Second. One each is assigned to Laurinburg, Sanford and Southern Pines.

A letter-designated company will replace the Combat Support Company at Albemarle, but won't be an addition, the spokesman said. This apparently will be the Company D mentioned last summer.

During the Guard's next fiscal year, October 1, 1982, to September 30, 1983, the Second Battalion will be reorganized under the new Division 86 concept. Last July, the Hoke County commissioners were informed by a National Guard spokesman that Company D would be formed at Raeford under one recommendation. For this new unit, the commissioners voted to lease for a token $1 a year the present National Guard Armory on East Central Avenue to Second Battalion HQ and HQ Company. The rest of the Guard organization assigned to Raeford, the new armory off U.S. 401 south bypass near Teal Road is due to be ready in the near future.

The formation of the additional tank company was subject to approval by the state adjutant general's office of the recommendation.

Under the reorganization, Hq and Hq Company will be changed to Headquarters and Service Support Company.

The commissioners were informed that Second Battalion will become the first National Guard armor unit to be reorganized under the new Army structure and receive the new Abrams M-1 tank, and its required support equipment.

The adjutant general last week announced 63 of the new M-1s, called by the Guard "today's most modern, most complicated, most lethal and most expensive armor weapon" would be issued to the Second Battalion, with the first scheduled to arrive at the Ft. Bragg storage area in March.

Old Bethesda Church Holds 191st Birthday

by Frank McInnis

On Sunday, Old Bethesda Presbyterian Church of Aberdeen will observe its 72nd annual homecoming and the 191st anniversary of its founding.

Families, friends and associates are invited to attend with well-filled baskets of down-home, scrumptious cooking.

A picnic-style, after-services lunch will be held in a section of the surrounding grove.

Services will begin at 11:15 a.m. in the old, well-preserved church sanctuary. The guest speaker is the Rev. Leland A. Richardson, Minister of First Presbyterian Church of Mocksville in Davie County.

His sermon title is "The Time Before Winter Comes."

Rev. Richardson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Richardson, Sr., and is a native of Jackson Springs in upper Moore County. So, this will be a double homecoming to him.

He is a graduate of West End High School in south-western Moore County, East Carolina University in Greenville and Union Theological Seminary in Virginia.

Richardson married Juanita Reaves of Hallsboro, and they have two daughters, Joy Lynne and Karen Reaves, who are attending Wake Forest University.

Nestled in a placid, heterogeneous grove of longleaf pines, cedars, oaks, weeping willows and hickory-nut bearing trees, Old Bethesda Presbyterian Church is one mile east of Aberdeen on N.C. Highway 5.

Old Bethesda is just three miles from Southern Pines and five miles from Pinehurst, the home of the World Golf Hall of Fame.

In a 15-mile-radius of the church there are 27 golf courses encompassing over 91 miles of courses.

Bethesda is also in the immediate vicinity of the Malcolm Blue Historic Farm.

Malcom McMillan Blue was one of the first Scottish settlers in the North Carolina Sandhills section.

Moreover, nearby is the home of Elizabeth "Buffie" Ives, sister of the late Adlai Stevenson, former governor of Illinois, and the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for President in 1952 and 1956, against President Dwight Eisenhower.

Stevenson was a frequent visitor in the home of Mrs. Ives and the community.

Old Bethesda is instrumentally and inherently one of the nation's pioneer landmarks. It is surrounded by a 50-acre cemetery.

Probably the smallest of our presidents, James Madison, at five feet four, never weighed more than 100 pounds.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC COLIFORM BACTERIA FOUND IN DRINKING WATER

During August coliform bacteria was found in drinking water samples from the Wrightsboro water system above the limit as it appears in the "Rules Governing Public Water Supplies."

Coliform bacteria is an environmental bacteria which is found in the soil and intestinal tract of warm blooded animals. The presence of coliform bacteria in drinking water indicates that some contamination has occurred.

In an attempt to correct the cause of the contamination we have done the following:

We have flushed the water lines. Check samples submitted on Sept. 13, 1982 show the water to be free of coliform bacteria.
