Arnett - Page Couple Married At Ft. Bragg Chapel Saturday

Miss Pamela Kay Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williard F. Page of Raeford, and Captain Robert Michael Arnett, son of retired Maj. and Mrs. Marion Lee Arnett of Spartanburg, were married Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Main Post Chapel at Fort Bragg with the Rev. John C. Ropp officiating.

The altar was centered with an arrangement of white sunburst gladiolus, fuji, mums and pompons flanked by two seven branched candelabra. Two Boston ferns and two palms graced the chancel.

A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Beverly Moylan, organist, and Tim Lloyd, soloist, who sang "One Hand, One Heart," "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a gown of candlelight beige, Victorian style, featuring a bodice of softly pleated chiffon over satin, with a sheer neckline, a high Venise lace collar and pleated sleeves with inserts of Venise lace and cuffed with lace. The gown flowed from a natural waistline into a semi-cathedral train edged with pleated chiffon and lace. Her chapel length veil was scalloped with Point DEspirit lace and attached to a Juliet cap. She carried a nosegay of ivory sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath with ivory lace and ivory satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Paul Davis, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Brown, Miss Terri Brown of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Elizabeth Long of Fayetteville and Mrs. Jennifer Page of Pinehurst. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Kelly Lowery of Morgantown.

The attendants wore formal Victorian gowns of Mauve. They carried nosegays of burgundy sweetheart roses, pin miniature fuji mums and baby's breath with ivory lace and burgundy satin streamers.

Flower girl was Miss Elizabeth Arnett, niece of the groom, of Spartanburg. She carried a white wicker basket of sweetheart burgundy roses, miniature mums and baby's breath with burgundy satin streamers.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Williard Page, Jr. of Pinehurst, Dr. Marion Arnett of Anderson, S.C. and Randall Hill of Woodbridge, Va. Ringbearer was John Moultry Oliver, III, of Goldsboro.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length mint green of chiffon and the bridegroom's mother wore a Victorian gown of seaspray chiffon. Both wore corsages.

Mrs. Chris Yeager of Fayetteville directed the wedding.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Fort Bragg Officers' Club. The bride and groom and their parents formed the receiving line. Miss Donna Newton of Fayetteville served champagne and Miss Ruth Wilson of Fayetteville served punch, along with an assortment of hors'oeuvres. A program of reception music was provided.

The bride received B.S. Degree from East Carolina University and has a master's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is employed as an English teacher in Fayetteville.

The bridegroom has a bachelor's degree from the U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs and is a captain stationed at Pope Air Force Base.

The couple will live in Fayetteville.
