Flu Shots Needed By High Risk, Elderly Persons

Doctors and Clinics here and throughout North Carolina will soon be administering a protective flu vaccine to thousands of "high-risk" individuals - those 65 and over, and those of any age with certain medical conditions. There are many persons in North Carolina in the high risk category who will be especially vulnerable to complications from a flu attack. Some of the medical conditions in the high risk group are chronic heart disease, bronchitis, tuberculosis, emphysema, kidney disease, diabetes, chronic anemia. Anyone with one of these medical conditions should consult his/her family doctor as to the need for the flu shot. The shots can be obtained from a family doctor or from the Hoke County Health Department. The Health Department will offer the flu shots beginning in October on Monday's from 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. and on Wednesday's from 8 a.m. - 11 a.m. There will be a $3.00 charge for the shot. The shot will be given at the Health Department for approximately six weeks or until the vaccine runs out. So get your flu shot early, because there is a limited supply!

Little Theatre Season Tickets On Sale Now

The Fayetteville Little Theatre is now offering season tickets for the 1982-83 season. The FLT season coupon lists five plays for $20.00, a saving of 31% over the price of individual tickets. This special 20th birthday season will open with "Encore, 20 years of Showstoppers," a revue of the great musicals presented at the FLT for the past 20 years. This musical opening will be followed in succession by "Babes in Toyland" for the Christmas Holidays, "Deathtrap" the popular murder-mystery just released from Broadway. A new play on the life of Lafayette will highlight the bicentennial celebration of the naming of the city of Fayetteville. Closing this exciting season will be a big, new musical freshly released from Broadway. It is hoped that the FLT will receive the rights to "Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," or "Annie," also mentioned in the exciting "Gypsy," revived on Broadway with Angela Lansbury. Season tickets are now on sale thru October at the Fayetteville Little Theatre Box office, weekdays 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. or call 323-4233 to purchase tickets.
