Attaway-Mitchell Vows Spoken In Grifton Church Saturday

Stella Britt Mitchell of Grifton and James Ralph Attaway, Jr. of Orlando, Florida were united in marriage at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, September 25 in the St. John's Episcopal Church in Grifton. The Rev. Kenneth Townsend, Rector officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood Mitchell, Jr. of Grifton.

The groom is the son of James Ralph Attaway, Sr. of Raeford and the late Mrs. Vera Posey Attaway.

The bride wore a formal length gown of candlelight satin over peau de poie designed with a Queen Anne neckline and outlined in Brussels lace beaded with pearls. The fitted bodice was enhanced with beaded re-embroidered alencon lace. Brussels lace inserts were used in the satin bishop sleeves which were finished in alencon lace cuffs. Beaded alencon lace also encircled the waist-line. The modified A-line skirt was accentuated with re-embroidered alencon lace. The attached scalloped cathedral length train was fashioned with a double panel of alencon lace that extended to the waistline. Matching overlace bordered the skirt and train which were accepted with appliques of Brussels lace.

The bride wore a chapel length veil of illusion edged in re-embroidered alencon lace and held in place by a Camelot cap overlaid in matching lace.

She carried an old fashioned bouquet of silk burgandy and white roses and baby's breath with off-white satin and lace streamers.

Mrs. Deborah Howell of Goldsboro served as Matron of Honor. Bridesmaids were: Miss Karen Talton of Selma, Mrs. Rhonda Hill of Grifton, Mrs. Carla Young of Badin, Miss Raylene Jessup of Raleigh, Miss Mia Walter of Orlando, Fla., and Mrs. Kathy Silliman of Thomasville. They wore formal gowns of deep burgandy custom designed in Italian taffets and featured a sweetheart neckline, large puff sleeves, and a gathered skirt. Each carried a nosegay of assorted silk flowers of tiger lilies, forget-me-nots and delphinium, in pink and burgandy tones.

The groom chose his brother, Robert Attaway of Cary, to serve as best man. Ushers were: Howard Perry of Spartanburg, S.C., Tim Tabak of Raleigh, Charles Young of Badin, Bruce Clements, cousin of the bride of Rocky Mount, Craven Mitchell, brother of the bride of Grifton and Frank Teague III, cousin of the groom, of Kinston, miniature-usher, Matthew Lewis of Washington, ring bearer, Jason Lewis of Washington, Dwain Teague, Acolyte.

Wedding music was presented by Tony Carraway, organist, of Chapel Hill, Miss Cindy Valdez, soloist of Atlanta, Ga., and Walter Lyerly, violinist of Kinston.

Mrs. E.F. Albritton directed the wedding and Miss Janet Green presided at the register.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of North Carolina State University with a B.S. degree in recreation-resource administration. The groom holds a civil engineering degree from North Carolina State University and a juris doctorate from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is employed by Paul N. Howard Construction Co. of Greensboro. After a wedding trip to Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic and the Virgin Islands, the couple will live in Orlando, Fla.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clements, Aunt and Uncle of the bride entertained the guests at a reception at the Clements' home. The cake and punch were served by Jan Tabak, Judy Yandle and Sue Fields, all of Raleigh.

Also assisting in serving were: Mrs. Stella Hurst, Mrs. Diantha Muzikar, Mrs. Betty White, Tim and Daniel Albritton and David Houston, all of Grifton.

REHEARSAL

Following the wedding rehearsal on Friday evening the wedding party, out of town guests, and friends of the bridal couple were entertained by the groom's father at a pig-picking held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Casey.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES

The bride was entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter White. Hostesses for the party were: Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. Charles Smithwick, Mrs. M.D. Allen and Mrs. Robbie Howell.

On September 15, the bride was honored at a cocktail hour at the Ramada Inn of Greenville. Hostesses were: Mrs. Stella Hurst, Mrs. Jean Saleeby, Mrs. Jackie Herring, and Mrs. Diantha Muzikar.

On September 16, a miscellaneous shower was given in Raleigh at the home of Miss Linda Sewall. Hostesses were: Misses Sewall, Raylene Jessup and Mrs. Jan Tabak.

A Bridesmaid Luncheon was given the day of the wedding by Mrs. Eunice Casey and Mrs. Karen Foss at the home of Mrs. Casey. The bride chose this time to present her attendants with gifts.

Miss Thacker Honored With Shower

Miss Kim Thacker, whose wedding to Michael E. Moore, will take place Saturday, October 9, was honored last Saturday evening when Mrs. Dianne Stec and Mrs. Panda Rowland were hostesses at a bridal shower at the Wayside Community House.

The bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. Gene Thacker, were presented corsages upon arrival.

The gift table was covered with a pink cloth with an overlay of white lace and centered with an arrangement of silk roses and dried baby's breath.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth centered with a five-branched silver candelabra holding burning tapers. Guests enjoyed sausage balls, mints, raw vegetables and dip after a few games were played. A separate table covered with a blue cloth, cornered with a white candle and a silk flower ring, was set for the punch and cake.

Miss Thacker was presented many nice and useful gifts by the hostesses and guests present.
