CHANGE OF PLANS .. A change in kicking strategy could have been a key factor during the Bucks loss to Scotland County Friday night. Here Bucks punter and quarterback John McDuffie gets off a successful punt during an earier contest. (Photo by Joe Gonzales).

Clyde Upchurch, Jr. who bought the first Chevrolet to qualify under Buy Now And Fly Program is shown receiving Airline Tickets from Younger Snead, Jr.

Miscue Leads Bucks To Loss of the key factors which contributed to the Hoke High Bucks loss Friday night to Scotland County $28-6$. Scotiand County 20-6. first half and was a result of a last minute change in kicking strategy, Conch Tom Jones said, noting that the mistake resulted in a touchdown for the Scots and put Hoke High behind 21-0 at intermission. The Bucks fought back and scored in the opening minutes of the third quarter. of the third quarter. "Instead of $21-0$, it would have been a different ball game at 14-6," Jones said. Jones said he broke a cardinal rule of his coaching stif dinal rule of his coaching staff and made a change in and made a change in plans during the game which been practiced during the week.

In order to avoid a runback on a punt, Jones decided to have Buck punter and quarterback John McDuffie kick the ball out of bounds. There were 49 seconds left in the half. The play backfired. The Scots got excellent field position and were able to score

Lung Assoc. Donation Opens 108 Golf Holes At Sandhills Clubs

Six outstanding golf courses in the Sandhills of North Carolina are being featured for play on a special being featured for play on a special "Golf Privilege Card" availabl tion of North Carolina, Mid-State Region.
For a $$ 30.00$ donation to the Lung Association, the card holde will be entitled to 18 holds of golf at each of the following location 1982 and January Jury December August of 1983.
These courses include Foxfire Inn and Counstry Club: Woodlake Country Club; Seven Lakes Gol and Country Club; Mid Pines Resort; Quail Ridge Golf Course and Hill Course
This will be an excellent opportunity to play 108 holes of golf on the golfing center of North Carolin for a nominal coditribution to worthwhile cause:
Further details and golf privilege cards are available by writing to ALANC, Mid-State Regiona Office, P.O. Box 726, Souther 3981).

before the buzzer sounded.
The other contributin factor to the Bucks loss. was Scotland's abiity to hold the ball during the second half and plays, Jones said
Although the Bucks held Scotland to seven points during the second half, Hoke was from the Scots.
The 1-5 Bucks have a good shot at getting back on the winning track Friday night a 8 ".m. that they had last year," Jone said. Though hurt by last year's graduation, the Fayetteville cam has continued to play "It will be a good contest," he said.

Cindy Frahm
Buck fans can look to this experience as they try to end the remainder of the season on a winning note.
This year's juniors will also be getting help next year from an outstanding junior varsity
The Buck JV's beat a larger Scotland team last Thursday 21-12, in what Jones called the best game by a JV team he has best game by a J team he ha seen in 14 years of coaching. The Freshman Bucks wer also victorious last week, handing Rockingham their first loss in four seasons.

Frahm And Thompson Named Week's Stars

The coaching staff of Hoke High has named Cindy Frahm as Female has named Cindy Frahm as Female Athiete of the Week and Greg Thompson as Male Athlete of the Week for the week of September 27-October $1^{\prime}$ Greg, a $5^{\prime} 7^{\prime \prime}$ Greg, a $5^{\prime \prime} 7^{\prime \prime}, 150$ pound more is a member of the junior varsity football team. Greg is tailback on the team.
Greg was nominated for his contributions in the 21.12 win over Scotland last Thursday night. Greg carried the ball 30 times for 190 yards for a 6.3 yard per carry average.
Head football coach Tom Jones said of the Scotland win, "It was the best J.V. team performance I've had in 14 years of coaching football. Probably four or five players deserved Athlete of the Week. Greg made big plays and blocked well Greg has been involved in both football and basketball since the J.V. basketball team this year. Greg plans to attend Wake Forest University and major in pre-law upon completion of his Gregol education.
Church in Raeford and is the sonel Ruth Thompson of 1515 Moore Street in Raeford.
Cindy Frahm, the Buck's Female Athlete of the Week, is a senior member of the girl's tennis team

Cindy has played competitive tennis for only two years, but now the team after having played the number five position last year. Cindy was nominated for her performance in the performance in the match against Said Coach Sue Davis, "Cindy played an excellent match Tuesday September 28 against Scotland. She won her match in two sets, 6-4 and 6-3. She played smart tennis by placing her shots and running her opponent. By playing the No position. Cindy plays the best girls in the conference and by winning Tuesday she showed that she can stand up against tough competi-Cindy is very active in extracurricular activities other than athletics.
She is presently a member of the Chorale, the Monogram Club and the French Club. She is also a Youth Council.
Cindy is active in the affairs of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church as a member of the Catholic Youth Organization. Organization.
Cindy plans to attend college after high school, but has not yet major in.
Cindy is Mrs. Leonard daughter of Mr . and Ave. in Raeformm of 709 Harris Ave. in Raeford.

