Greg Smith Singers At Floral McDonald On October 22

The much-acclaimed Gregg Smith Singers will appear here in concert on Friday, Oct. 22 at 8 p.m. Flora Macdonald Academy, under the sponsorship of The Red Springs Arts Council.

The youthful mixed chorus, celebrating its 25th anniversary, is at the forefront of the world's great choral groups and is at present the most recorded classical vocal ensemble anywhere, with more than 50 albums.

The Singers are noted for their remarkable discipline and ensemble and sound are also acclaimed as pioneers in imaginative programming and in the presentation of new music.

Composers as well as critics have lauded them, and Igor Stravinsky, Samuel Barber, and Aaron Copland are among those who have applauded the group. Irving Kolodin wrote, in The Saturday Review, "Gregg Smith impresses me as the best new man in the (choral) field since Robert Shaw." And the monthly Music Journal labels the Gregg Smith Singers as "the best choral ensemble in the country." Their recordings have won awards from Hi-Fi and Stereo magazines, as well as the Montreux International Recording Award.

JUST KIDDING -- These goats of David Warren's on Warren's pasture on N.C. 211 near Montrose add interest to the countryside. Warren says they also keep the pasture grass down. The big one with the horns in the right front part of the picture is a billy. A chicken [at right near the tree] was visiting when the picture was taken. Neither the goats nor the chicken minded.

News From Antioch Family Needs Help

by Ruth Ansley

The family of Mattie Rose Clark needs your help.

Mattie, and her family of two children, plus her sister and her family of 3 children are victims of a fire which completely destroyed their home in the Antioch Community, of Hoke County.

Winter is just around the corner, but these two families don't even have a coat to wear.

At the moment they are staying with kind friends but hope to eventually have another home of their own.

Won't you help by sharing something in your kitchen, or other household goods that you seldom or never use?

Perhaps you could go through your closets too and find some good clothes of the following sizes: Misses sizes 12 and 18 and children's sizes for girls 8, 12. In Raeford please call this number after 6:30 p.m. 875-2234, and in Antioch, the Mt. Elam Baptist Church 843-5017 or Antioch Presbyterian Church 843-4860.

Johnny Smith Honored By Hillcrest Baptist

On October 3 as the new year began for Southern Baptist Churches across our state, those at Hillcrest Baptist Church rejoiced to honor one of their own.

During the 11 a.m. service on October 3, Brother Johnny Smith, the son of the late Archie Smith, Route 4, Raeford received recognition for 19 years of perfect attendance in the teaching ministry (the Sunday School) of the church.

Johnny is an employee of Burlington Mills and a member of Hillcrest Baptist Church.

His hobbies are bowling and ceramics.

What a joy to pay him this honor in a time when many churches are struggling to enroll faithful attendance of its members.

During these 19 years I am sure Johnny had many opportunities to stay home, but church members rejoice that his determination brought him faithfully to his church each Sunday.

Members thanked Johnny for the challenge to be faithful to our Lord each Lord's day.
