Cox-Scarboro Wedding Vows Spoken In Monroe Saturday

Miss Janie Carolyn Scarboro, daughter of Mrs. Max Smith and the late Charles P. Scarboro of Monroe, and Mitchell Maurice Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Cox, Jr. of Raeford, spoke their wedding vows, Saturday, October 16, at 7:00 p.m. in the Messiah Episcopal Church in Monroe, in a candlelight ceremony.

The Rev. Terry Taylor officiated. Mrs. Pam Senter of Fayetteville, organist, and Pat Huntley, soloist, of Rockingham presented a program of nuptial music. Ms. Huntley sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Charles P. Scarboro, Jr., chose a wedding gown of white satin with a lace stand-up collar. The long sleeves and full length gown were also lace trimmed. The overcape veil of illusion was scalloped with lace and formed the full length train. She wore a wide-trimmed wedding hat scalloped with lace and carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses with satin streamers.

Mrs. Tricie Bowers served as matron of honor. She wore a gown of Emerald green featuring spaghetti straps with a crisscrossed bodice and skirt, draped to one side. Her bouquet was also yellow and white roses.

The groom was accompanied by his father as best man. Tim Roberts of Wadesboro and Dwight Jackson of Raeford were ushers.

After a cruise to the Bahamas Mr. and Mrs. Cox will be at home in Raeford where he is presently employed at Raeford Salvage Company.

Mrs. Cox graduated from Central Piedmont Community College as a Medical Office Assistant. Mr. Cox graduated from Pembroke State University with a B.A. degree in Sociology.
