Miss McBryde, Mr. Logue Married In Ashley Heights Baptist Church

Daphne Gwyn McBryde of Route 1, Aberdeen, became the bride of Joseph Brian Logue of Southern Pines on the afternoon of October 17. The ceremony was held at Ashley Heights Baptist Church. Pastor Robert Denton officiated and Father Mark Logue, brother of the bridegroom, assisted.

Wedding music was provided by Tammie Kuyawski, pianist. Phillip Cole, Judy Strother, and Tammie Kujawski, vocalists, sang "The Wedding Song," "I Pledge My Love," and "My Sweet Lady."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McBryde Jr. of Ashley Heights. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logue of Southern Pines.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of sheer silk over satin, with lace and pearls at the high neckline and lace. The sleeves fell in ruffles to the elbow and a wide ruffle trimmed with lace edged the skirt. Three lace circles decorated the skirt. The tiered lace edged veil flowed from a lace headpiece. The skirt ended in a long train.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of silk flowers, made for her by a friend, Janice Pickler.

Pamela McBryde, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a long peach dress adorned with antique lace. She wore baby's breath in her hair and carried a bouquet of silk flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ted Lawrence of Sanford, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Dennis Ellis of Cherry Point, friend of the bride; Paige McLean of Gainesville, Florida, cousin of the bride. They wore long tuxedo dresses, adorned with antique lace and carried bouquets of silk flowers.

Frank Logue, father of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Leonard and Ryan McBryde, brothers of the bride and Jimmy Logue of Southern Pines, brother of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom, best man and ushers were all attired in white tuxedos with peach boutonnières.

Francis Pickler, friend of the bride, registered the guests.

Linda Tullock, aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

The bride's mother wore a purple dress with a purple and peach corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise dress with a peach corsage.

The church was decorated with two candelabras with cream candles accented with greenery, and four baskets of ferns.

RECEPTION
The brides parents hosted a reception in the church fellowship building.

The three tiered wedding cake was served by Janice Pickler, friend of the family. The cake was iced in yellow, peach and green flowers. The table was covered with a white laced cloth. It was centered with an arrangement of flowers and adorned with candles.

Sausage balls, mints, nutty fingers, dilled wieners, were served from the reception table. Punch was served by Kaye Baxley of Whispering Pines, friend of the bride.

Francis Pickler, Sue Mandis, Sherry Smith, Jane Strother and

Mrs. Joseph Brian Logue

Shirley Johnson also served.
