QUEEN OF EXTENDED DAY SCHOOL

The Library's Mickey Pate was the Homecoming Queen for Extended Day School in last Friday's parade. Mickey is learning the library in the mornings and goes to school in the afternoons. We are pleased she was chosen as her school's Queen. Her ambitious interest at work and at school are to be commended.

CHILDREN'S NATIONAL BOOK WEEK NOVEMBER 15-19

Children's National Book Week is still being planned. Keep checking with us for more information. Letters are being sent out to the kindergarten-6th grade folks explaining on the week long projects and entertainment at the library.

BOOKMOBILE SERVICES

The Bookmobile, under the care of Mrs. Letitia Conoly and Mrs. Nancy Morgan is still going out to your area of the county every four weeks. Check with your neighbor who may be already using this service; call the library 875-2502, or come by any time and this service will be explained to you. We want you to enjoy reading and offer this year-round service to those who find it difficult to come in to town. Just for summer months for youngsters out of school or for the whole year round, can be easily worked out with these two ladies or at the library.

If you already have a library card for the main library you will not have to get another one. Or, if you have a Bookmobile card it is always good in the library.

REMEMBER THOUGH! -- Books checked out in the library are always due back in two weeks with overdues 5 cents a day.

The Bookmobile books do not have an overdue charge, but we do ask you to try to plan to be home the days it comes by your house so the books can be exchanged and others may have access to them when they want them.

CLOSED! CLOSED! CLOSED!

There will be no library services on Armistice Day, November 11; Thursday of next week. The library will be closed.
