Hoke High Wrestlers Open Practice

Full practice began Monday for the hopefuls of Hoke County High School's wrestling squad.

Coach Jack Southern will send his 1982-83 grapplers into action November 30 at Richmond Senior High School near Rockingham.

The squad working out Monday afternoon on the stage of MacDonald Gymnasium numbered 29, and these included reinforcements from the Bucks' football squad which ended its season Friday night.

Before then, Southern and Assistant Coach Russell Smith had had several days of practice for the non-gridders.

Southern told a reporter Monday afternoon, This year's wrestling team has a lot of young wrestlers, most having only one year of mat experience. We lost four seniors to graduation, and they will be missed, but hopefully their winning attitude and leadership qualities rubbed off on the younger wrestlers.

FOOTBALL QUEEN -- Jennifer Sullivan, a 9-year-old cheerleader for the Steelers of the Hoke County Midget Football League, was chosen the league's Little Miss Football at the close of the 1982 season. She is wearing the crown and corsage that go with her title. Miss Sullivan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Sullivan of Rt. 2, Box 268, Raeford.

Last year's squad had a 9-6 record, and Southern says, "we are looking to better that this year."

The returning lettermen are John Davis, Tyrone Jackson, Ricky Allen, Orlando McKinnon, Darryl Kelly, Marvin Peguese, Richard McLaughlin, and Robert Moody.

The non-lettermen but experienced wrestlers returning from last year's squad are Mike Inman, David Dalton, Darren Clark, Darrell Andrew, and David Butler.

Though those did not letter, Southern said, they gained valuable experience last year.

"We have high goals for ourselves this year," he said, "and whether or not we achieve these goals depends on how well our newcomers do and also on how much our returning wrestlers have improved."

The rest of the schedule after the Richmond opener:

December 2 -- Pine Forest at Hoke; December 7 -- at Douglas Byrd; 9 -- Westover, home; 14 -- at Cape Fear; 17 -- South View, home.

January 4 -- at 71st; 7 -- Lee, home; 11 -- at Terry Sanford; 14 -- Scotland, home; 18 -- Reid Ross, home; 21 -- at Pinecrest; 25 -- open; 28 -- at E.E. Smith.

February 1 -- at Lumberton. The matches will start at 7:30 p.m.
