Turlington chorus singers who gave the musical "The North Pole Rock and Roll."

Chorus Does Rock-roll Yule Show

The J.W. Turlington Chorus went back recently to days of bob-socks and poodle skirts, leather jackets and juke boxes when it performed the musical "The North Pole Goes Rock and Roll."

Santa, played by Doug Simpson, was afraid that children had become bored with "the same old Santa." Much to the dismay of Mrs. Claus, played by Candice Cameron. Santa becomes Claus-erelli.

Clauserelli, or "the Claus," was played by Will Wright.

Everyone went rock and roll, including Mrs. Claus, who became "Mrs. C." "Mrs. C." was played by Kris McMillan.

The chorus was directed by Vickie Elliott.

Langdon Named PIO for Schools

Another 'hat' has been added to the Audiovisual Director of the Hoke County School System.

On November 9, Superintendent of Schools Raz Autry named Glenn Langdon to this position.

The title doesn't carry an increase in salary, just an increase in responsibility.

As Public Information Officer, Langdon will coordinate all publicity for the school system. He will be the liaison between the schools and the news media.

During the school years 1981-82 and 1982-83, Langdon attended the state and regional meetings of the Public Relations Association.

Tom I. Davis, Director of the Division of Information and Publications, State Department of Public Instruction, will work very closely with Langdon. Davis is a former newspaper man.

'Christmas Cantata'

On Go For Thursday

The Hoke County High School Chorus and Chorale will present their Christmas Concert on Thursday night, December 16th at 8:15 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Highlights of the concert include Daniel Pinkham's "Christmas Cantata" accompanied by brass choir and organ. We are very fortunate to have a brass group from East Carolina University School of Music.

The chorus and chorale will perform Christmas music from the Renaissance and Baroque periods as well as more contemporary, lighter Christmas numbers.
