Eagle Scout Award Presented To Scott Goller

Scott Goller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Goller of Greensboro, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Younger Snead of Raeford, was among five presented the Eagle Scout awards in a troop of Court of Honor at Guilford College Church in Greensboro recently.

The five boys have been active in Troop 109 since they first joined. This past summer, 16 Troop 109 scouts and their adult leaders formed two crews and traveled to New Mexico to hike the rugged mountain trails of the Philmont Scout Ranch for two weeks.

Several community groups were the beneficiaries of the Eagle projects undertaken by the five scouts. John Goller is troop committee chairman.

Scott's mother is the former Miss Jenelle Snead of Raeford.

Public Affairs Meets With Mrs. Koonce

NFWC, Public Affairs Department of the Raeford Woman's Club, met Tuesday night, December 7, at the home of Mrs. Stanley Koonce with Mrs. Alfred Leach as co-hostess.

Miss Caroline Parker, chairman, presided. She opened the meeting with a devotional entitled "Gifts We Can Give Year Around."

Mrs. Judy Ferguson, who is the home health nurse in Hoke County, was speaker for the program. She explained that requirements for home health services are that one must be essentially home-bound, must have a skill need and must be under a doctor's care.

Referrals can be made by anyone but final signature comes from a doctor. The cost is met through medicare, medicaid, insurance or private funds. They see children as well as older persons.

Mrs. Ferguson showed slides of a typical business day.

During a business session members were given tips for safety measures during the holidays. Members voted to order lighted telephone dials for sale to persons in the county.

A white elephant sale was held to raise money for community projects.

Those present were invited to the dining room for refreshments of hot Russian tea and assorted Christmas goodies.
