Hoke Cagers Split

Hoke High's basketball squads return to action Friday night against E.E. Smith on the Hoke court.

Boys' head coach Ron Parson said Monday the games with Pinecrest at Hoke, scheduled for last Friday night, but eliminated by bad weather, have been rescheduled for February 10. The Hoke squads will play Lumberton's Tuesday at Lumberton.

In their lone games last week, the Hoke boys defeated Reid Ross 66-53, but the Hoke girls lost, 48-42 to the Ross girls. The games were played in the Ross gym.

The results of the Ross games, played January 18, sent the Hoke boys' mark for the season to 9-4 and the Hoke girls' to 7-4.

Parson said the Hoke boys "played a real good game."

Greg Hollingsworth again led the scoring, putting in 19 points, followed by Freddy McLean with 17, and Gary Easterling with 15. The other Hoke scorers were Terry Thomas 7, John McDuffie and George McLaurin 2 each, and Tommy McRae 4.

Buck Matmen Pin R. Ross

The Buck wrestling team scored a major victory by defeating conference opponent Reid Ross in a match at Hoke High on Wednesday night.

The Bucks ran their season record to 5-6 overall and 2-1 in the conference by defeating Ross by a score of 50-23.

As has been the case all year, Hoke's strength once again was evident in the lightweight and heavyweight divisions.

Hoke began the match with victories to lead Ross by a score of 36-0 at the end of the sixth match.

Billy Locklear, at 100 pounds, received a forfeit and then the next five Hoke wrestlers (John Davis, at 107 pounds; Don Woods, at 114 pounds; Marvin Peguese, at 121 pounds; Tyrone Jackson, at 128 pounds; and Ricky Allen, at 134 pounds) all pinned their opponents.

Hoke's losses in the mid-leweight divisions allowed Ross to close the score to 36-15 before Buck heavyweights closed out the match.

Hoke's heavyweights were lead by Orlando McKinnon, at 169 pounds, who pinned his opponent; Darrell Kelly, at 187 pounds, who wrestled to a tie; and Charles Matthews who pinned his opponent in the unlimited division.

The next home match for the Buck's will be against Lumberton on February 1 at 7 p.m.
