

Headliners, D&T Const. Win Volleyball Matches

The Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission started its 1983 Women's Volleyball League in January. The league, consisting of nine teams, continued action as the teams entered their third week of competition.

On 31 January 1983 the games began with the Headliners playing the Diamond Powder Puffs. The Headliners defeated the Diamond Powder Puffs 15-6, 15-1.

Mary Allen played an important role in the second game by serving 12 straight points for the Headliners.

On another court, D&T Construction and the Sneakers battled it out. Ella Ransom and Annette Locklear led D&T Construction to a 15-10, 15-8 win. The Sneakers were guided by the playing of Delissa Lunsford and Kim Holland.

As the action continued the Spikes were paired against the Pointsetters. Shirley Perry and Sandra Holcomb led the Spikes, but, it was not enough, as the Pointsetters defeated them 15-8, 15-11. Karen Hinson and Glenda Blue sparked the Pointsetters to victory.

As the night continued it was the Debatables versus the Wildcats. The Debatables, sparked by the serves of Mary James, defeated the Wild Cats 15-12, 15-3. The Wildcats were guided by Shirley Rush and Carolyn Headen.

The final game of the night paired Jerry's Auto Repair against the Diamond Powder Puffs. Jeffy's Auto Repair used good team effort to give them a 15-8, 15-13 victory over the Diamond Powder Puffs. The Powder Puffs were guided by Dianne Stec and Jean Smith.

The games resumed on 7 February 1983 as the Wild Cats went up against the Spikes.

The Wild Cats, led by Peggy Walters and Shirley Rush played a good game, but, the Spikes prevailed, 15-11, 15-10. The Spikes were guided by the serves of Shirley Perry and Derissene Roper.

The Headliners and the Sneakers were scheduled for action, but, the Sneakers had to forfeit. Better luck next time.

The excitement continued in a close match between D&T Construction and Jerry's Auto Repair. Della Maynor and Debbie Thompson helped lead D&T Construction to a 9-15, 15-12, 16-14 win. Jerry's Auto Repair was guided by Vicki McMillan and Rose Sandy.

The games continued as the Debatables went up against the Diamond Powder Puffs. The Debatables, led by Susan Houston and Davis, won the match, 15-11, 15-0. The Diamond Powder Puffs were guided by Linda Zalekas and Becky Baker.

The night continued with a match between the Pointsetters and the Sneakers. Led by Kathy Little and Delores Blue, the Pointsetters won, 15-8, 15-13. The Sneakers were led by Sheila Black and Sue Walters.

Eagles End Season On Winning Notes

The Lady Eagles completed their basketball season last week with back to back victories over Anson to compile a 13-1 record.

J. Hunt lead the Eagles with 13 points followed by T. Kelton with 11 points in Tuesday's 54-15 win at Upchurch.

The Lady Eagles had a little harder time in Anson plagued with bad passes and rough play, but managed a 39-18 decision.

T. Watkins lead the Eagles with 11 points followed by K. Bronson,

J. Hunt, and T. Kelton each with 8 points.

Share Your Christmas

By Sherry Matthews
Over $1500.00 was collected and spent on some 180 families this Christmas through the help of The Woman's Club of Raeford and their Share Your Christmas project.

At their last meeting, the club members mulled over the upcoming decision of whether to continue supporting the program alone or seek help from other sources.

"The under-taking is far too large for one group, and we are hoping for a year-round organization that will concern itself with this project alone," said a spokeswoman for the group.

The Woman's Club of Raeford will vote at its next meeting on whether it wishes to continue to support this project.

The Share Your Christmas project's money went this past Christmas to supplying toys, books, fruit, sugar and children's clothes to the needy in the community.

Tech Sgt. Sanderson Named Noncom Of Year

Air Force Tech. Sgt. Jack W. Sanderson, son of Jack C. and Bernice Sanderson of Route 1, Red Springs, has been chosen as non commissioned officer of the year for the Arnold Engineering Development Center at Arnold Air Force Station, Tenn.

Sanderson, a security police superintendent, was selected in competition among contemporaries for professional skill, duty performance and exemplary conduct.

The sergeant, assigned with the 4960th Air Base Squadron, is a 1968 graduate of Hoke County High School, Raeford, N.C.

His wife, Nancy, is the daughter of James B. and Barbara J. Dudley of Route 7, Lumberton.
