Miss Ashburn, Bride-Elect Honored At Drop In Feb. 2

Miss Kathy Ashburn, bride-elect of Charles Bryan Archer on March 5, was honored on Wednesday evening of last week at a drop-in at the home of Mrs. Homer Tuttle, with Mrs. Bobby Cox, co-hostess. Candles and arrangements of flowers made a lovely background as guests were greeted and directed to the dining table for an assortment of hors d'oeuvres and punch, served by the mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Randall Ashburn. The dining table was covered with an army-navy tablecloth, centered with yellow roses and flanked by yellow burning tapers.

Miss Ashburn was presented a corsage of yellow daisies upon arrival and other gifts from the hostesses were a plate, a piece of crystal in her chosen patterns, and an elegant blue pillow, cross-stitched and centered with her initials, incidentally the same now as they will be after she is married.

Mrs. Ferguson Hosts Public Affairs Department

NFWC, Public Affairs Department of the Raeford Woman's Club met on Tuesday evening of last week in the home of Mrs. Ben Ferguson. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Paul Livingston and Mrs. Charles Constantino.

Miss Caroline Parker, chairman, opened the meeting with a devotional service and presided over the business session.

Mrs. Stanley Koonce, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Bill Cameron, coordinator of Exceptional Children for Hoke County Schools, who presented the program. Mrs. Cameron said that great stride had been made in education for the exceptional child. In 1973 eleven teachers taught some special child. Today there are 41 people employed in the Hoke County schools under the exceptional program. In 1974 seventy-five major laws were passed assuring the right to education for the exceptional child. Prior to that the handicapped children were allowed only public education which caused many to remain at home with little or no contact with others.

Presently the exceptional program in Hoke County has a $500,000 budget, 85 percent of which is spent in salaries and fringe benefits. These children learn by doing, touching and holding and this takes extensive supplies. Mrs. Cameron also explained the SWAP Program with Sandhill Youth Center.

During the social hour refreshments in the Valentine motif were served by the hostesses.
