Mrs. McNeill introduced the guest artists Mrs. Diane Guthrie, soprano, and piano accompanist, Ms. Joy Cogswell, both of Fayetteville. Opera selections from the four main periods in music history: Baroque, classic, romantic and modern periods were artistically presented and performed by Mrs. Guthrie. Mrs. Cogswell played selections from Brahms and Chopin.

Delicious refreshments were served from a beautiful appointed table carrying out the Valentine motif.

Mr. And Mrs. Huff Honored On Thirty-Seventh Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Huff

Family members, childhood friends and acquaintances of many years were invited to join Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Huff for the celebration of their anniversary on Friday evening, February 11.

The gala affair was hosted by Mr. Huff and planned as a surprise for his bride of 37 years, formerly Emma Sinclair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N.F. Sinclair.

Approximately 250 guests gathered at the Hoke County Civic Center and anxiously awaited the arrival of the Huffs. Shortly afterward Mr. Huff made a very touching speech and told that they had been sweethearts since the first grade in school, and from then on they were known as "Emmy and Junior." He praised his wife for her devotion to him throughout the years and stated that they have five sons and how proud he and his wife are of them.

Four sons, Ralph, Randy, Ricky and Rusty were present, along with Ralph's wife, the former Linda Baker, and Randy's wife, the former Kathy Keaton. Ronnie resides in Atlanta and could not be present, but the register table was adorned with a dozen red roses sent by him.

Guests served themselves from an abundance of food. The table, covered with a white cloth, was centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations, flanked by two three-branched candelabra with burning white tapers.

Another table, covered with a white cloth with an overlay of white lace was used for the wedding cake and punch. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature arrangement of white chrysanthemums, white carnations tipped in red, red rosebuds and centered with a red silk valentine surrounded by pearls.

Mrs. Julian Johnson catered the affair.

White candles and smilax were used on tables, covered with white cloths, for seating the guests.

Music for dancing was presented by Troy and "The Viscos" band from Aberdeen.

Bridge

Miss Currie

Miss Ellen Currie was hostess to the members of her bridge club on Tuesday evening of last week.

A dessert course in the Valentine motif was served before the game, cokes and nuts during play.

Mrs. Carlton Niven was high score winner.
