Nancy Hefner Is Congressional Club's New President

Nancy H. Hefner, wife of Congressman Bill Hefner of the 8th District of North Carolina, has been elected the 40th President of The Congressional Club in Washington. Her term begins this month and runs through January of 1985.

The Congressional Club is a non-partisan, non-political club established in 1908 for the wives of Members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives. The Club was incorporated as a result of an Act of the Sixtieth Congress of the United States and has been self-supporting from the day of its organization.

Nancy Hefner assumes her position as President as the Club begins to celebrate its Diamond Jubilee Anniversary. She becomes President following several years of active participation and leadership in the Club. Since becoming a member of the Club in 1974 when Bill Hefner was first elected to the U.S. House, Nancy has served as Committee Chairman of several committees, Board member for the past four years, and held the positions of 4th Vice President and 1st Vice President.

As President of the Club, Nancy Hefner will be charged with the responsibility of overseeing the Club's monthly activities program, its Community Service projects, classes sponsored by the Club, and the First Lady's Luncheon, traditionally the most colorful and festive event of the year.

Mrs. Hefner was born and raised in Etowah County, Alabama and moved to North Carolina with her husband in 1954. The Hefners live in Concord, North Carolina.
