HISTORY OF RAEFORD

Mrs. Cameron gave a short history of Raeford to the 5th grade at the school on Friday.

MR. PAUL FU LEAVES

Paul Fu, who has been with the library for 4 years finished his time with us Friday, February 25th.

Fu came to us from Johnson C. Smith School in Charlotte four years ago upon the resignation of James Peele as a Regional Consultant. He has worked throughout the Regional System compiling genealogies, cataloging books, helping weed outdated materials, etc. He left on Saturday for California. He was not certain if he would settle there or go on to Taiwan, where he recently returned from an extensive visit.

The Library Board presented Paul with a beautiful bronze plaque in honor of his services here. Also, he was honored with lunch by our Regional Director, Mr. Bill Bridgman and Asst. Director, Mrs. Ann Thrower. Upon returning to the library a small staff party was held in his honor.

Mr. Fu will be missed. We here at the Hoke Library wish him well.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black History Month is over and I can assure you there are many librarians all over the state and not just in the Region or Hoke Co. libraries that have sore feet from so much walking and researching.

We hope much was learned by the many, many students.

Also, we hope to be able to work something out with the teachers where, maybe they could give the students this assignment for the whole year with papers to be turn-ed in in February; Black History Month. That way materials would not all be checked out at the same time.

We had mothers, aunts, and
