

Hornsby Named Delegate To Alpha Xi Convention

Raeford resident, Darla Hornsby, will serve as a delegate to the Alpha Xi Delta Province Convention convening on April 25-27 in Raleigh.

Ms. Hornsby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric M. Christensen, Rt. 3, is currently serving as the President of the North Carolina State University Colony.

"Responding Today for Alpha Xi Delta Tomorrow" is the theme for the convention this year. Alpha Xi Delta also has chapters in Virginia and South Carolina who will be sending representatives.

The Province Convention order of business includes the election of officers, presentation of awards and a re-emphasis of the Fraternity's dedication to service others, including its extensive work in respiratory health.

Individual and group awards will be presented to the collegiate and alumnae representatives. The convention will also serve as a management and leadership training session.

In addition to the Raleigh convention, Alpha Xi Delta will hold 22 other Province Conventions throughout the United States.

Dance Program Planned

The Dance Theater of Fayetteville will present its spring performance "Printemps En Trois" on March 26 at 8 p.m. and March 27 at 3 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College.

The program will begin with a comedy depicting romantic deception, "The Necklace." Choreography was done by Sara White and Ana Clark.

The second ballet is a new work choreographed especially for the Dance Theater by Sara White entitled "Danse Macabre." Danced in black light, the audience will view skeletons swirling and leaping to the music of Saint-Saens.

The final ballet of the evening will be the popular classic "Swan Lake".

Representing Raeford is Sally McLean.

She will be performing in Danse Macabre and Swan Lake. Also dancing in both numbers is Maggie Snellgroves, granddaughter of Mrs. Molene Russell, Raeford.

Sara White choreographer and co-artistic director for the company has dance classes in Raeford once a week at Upchurch Junior High.

She plans to train more Raeford dancers for auditions and acceptance into the Dance Theater of Fayetteville.

Tickets are $4 adult, $3 student and $2 under 12 and Sr. citizens.

Local Man Cast In 'Damn Yankees'

Dan Norton has been cast in Bordeaux Dinner Theatre's Spring production of "Damn Yankees".

In the role of Benny Van Buren, Norton plays the manager/coach of the woeful Washington Senators in their quest to defeat the New York Yankees for the American League Championship.

This light-hearted musical comedy is based on Douglass Wallop's novel, "The Year The Yankees Lost the Pennant," and premiered on Broadway in 1956 for a highly successful run.

A former Raeford resident, Norton has been seen in lead roles in "Camelot", "Showboat", and "Anything Goes" at Bordeaux, and recently starred in two productions at Manny's Dinner Theatre in Southern Pines, North Carolina.

Dan is a Rehabilitation Therapist at McCain Correctional Center. "Damn Yankees" will open April 30th for a six week run. Reservations can be made by contacting the box office at Bordeaux at 323-1114 between noon and 6 p.m. daily.
