The entire cast of Annie, students from the Upchurch Junior High EMH class, take a final bow after their performance at South Hoke School last Thursday. These students performed the play at several of the Hoke County Schools last week as a part of the Celebration of the Arts.

School Schedule Set By Board

By Sherry Matthews
The Hoke County Board of Education has adopted a new calendar which calls for the next school year to begin for students on September 1 and end on June 8.

In a specially called meeting last week, the board unanimously agreed to cut one of the teacher workdays scheduled for January 26-27 in an effort to prevent students from having to attend the last day of school on Monday.

Making the students return for one day after a weekend "is not fair," board member Bobby Wright said.

Hoke Chorus Presents Musical Barnum May 19

The setting is two years ago when a member of the Hoke County Chorus suggests performing the Broadway musical "Barnum."

No one really considers it seriously. Then "Barnum" walks away with three Tony awards and Anne Dorsey, director of the chorus and chorale, gives the musical a second glance.

The music is ordered, and a great show starts developing.

With the help of returning choreographer Stacey Miller, Ms. Dorsey starts arranging the three-ring circus which is the setting for "Barnum."

Soloists, dancers, acrobats, and the singers all begin rehearsals.

Costumes are ordered; sets are designed; music is learned such as Cole Porter's "Be A Clown" and "There Is A Sucker Born Ev'ry Minute" from "Barnum."

Combine the music with the glitter and showmanship that is Broadway, and one has a show unlike any other Hoke County has ever seen.

The lights go on under the big top for one performance on May 19 at 8:15 p.m. at Hoke High School. Advanced tickets are on sale for $2 and reservations can be made by calling 875-2156.

Tickets at the door will be $2.50

Governor's School

Elizabeth Upchurch (left) and Kim Smith were recently selected to attend Governor's School for gifted and talented students this summer.

Local Students Named For Governor's School

Kim Smith and Elizabeth Upchurch, juniors of Hoke County High School, have been selected to attend The Governor's School this summer.

The Governor's School is designed to assist the gifted and talented student to perform at his fullest potential.

Kim Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith of Raeford.

Kim will participate as an English student at the Governor's School East in Laurinburg.

She is a member of the National Honor Society, Spanish Club, and Marching Band. She is presently serving as vice president of her junior class.

Kim attends Raeford Presbyterian Church where she is also a member of the Handbells Choir and Chancel Choir.

Elizabeth Upchurch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Upchurch, will participate in the Natural Science curriculum at the Governor's School West in Winston-Salem.

Elizabeth is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Government Association, Science

Club, French Club, Juniorettes, and the Track Team.

She is also an accompanist for Chorale and the Barbershop Singers.

Elizabeth attends Raeford United Methodist Church where she serves as president of the United Methodist Youth.

VICA Members

Garner Awards

Carl Bundy, Deborah Kershaw, Sherman Chavis, and Robert D. McDiarmid of Hoke High School VICA Electronic and Machine Drafting students participated last week in the State VICA Skill Olympics, held in Fayetteville.

The Electronics and Radio and TV Class had two winners, first place Robert D. McDiarmid and second place Deborah Kershaw.

These students along with their instructor, Arthur B. Kemp will participate at the National Leadership Conference and United States Skill Olympics to be held in Louisville, Kentucky on June 27-July 2.
