Cheerful greetings

Raeford Mayor John K. McNeill welcomes Harold Salmon, district manager for the new Maxway stores to the city. Salmon was in town to supervise final reconstruction and assist in the ribbon cutting ceremony last Wednesday. The ribbon cutting ceremony officially honors the grand opening of the newly remodeled Maxway.

...Chamber

--John Howard (Howard Clothiers).

New officers, in addition to Parker, who were elected by the membership for the 1983-84 year were:

--Benny McLeod (Hoke Cotton Warehouse) elected first vice-president.

--Terry Houston (Burlington Industries) elected second vice-president, and

--Ruth Parrish (Medicine Shoppe) elected Secretary-Treasurer.

Running side by side with this week's election is the Annual Chamber of Commerce dinner which will feature Secretary of the North Carolina Department of Commerce, D.M.(Lauch) Faircloth.

The dinner will be held in Hoke High School's Gibson Cafeteria May 24 at 6:30 p.m.

According to Chamber of Commerce Director Earl Fowler, the dinner is a "very important meeting for this community."

"We want as many people as possible to attend this meeting," Fowler said.

Anyone interested in attending this dinner should contact the Chamber of Commerce at 875-5929 for reservations.

Reservations for the dinner will be taken until Friday, May 20, Fowler said.

Tickets for the event are $6.00 each, Fowler added.

Hillcrest 4-H'er Named Southeastern Winner

Leah Hendrix of the Hillcrest 4-H Club has been named Southeastern District Winner in the 4-H Consumer Education Project. She was named winner as a result of her work on her cumulative project record book in consumer education.

Leah has been in 4-H for two years and has done work in consumer education, foods and nutrition, health, recreation, and crafts projects. She has participated in numerous activities, including District Junior 4-H Day, 4-H Achievement Night, District 4-H Activity Day, and 4-H Talent Contest.

In the consumer education project, Leah has completed activities in comparison shopping, distributed pamphlets on Teletip, and Energy Conservation, and done demonstrations on preparing economical foods. She was named County Winner in the egg cooking demonstration. She has presented programs at her local 4-H club and assisted with workshops for other 4-H members.

Leah has served on numerous local and county committees and has been active in community service projects such as Heart Fund Drive and Fire Safety Week Observation.

Leah is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hendrix.

Hoke FHA's Attend District Meet

Hoke County FHA members participated in the District IV Proficiencies on April 23, at the Lee Senior High School in Sanford.

Those members participated in these events: Pam Barnes, Creative Clothing Display, placed third; Sharon Breeden, Public Speaking; Valeria Galberth and Adriene McPhatter, Chapter Display; Conshetta Holmes, Job Application; Bonny Monroe, Merit Test; Theresa Thornton, Nutritious

Snack for Teens; Donna Watson, Consumer Decision Making; Lorie Walters, Cake Decorating, placed first.

Lorrie will compete on the state level representing District IV. She is the daughter of Robert and Cassie Walters of the Ashley Heights Community.

Nearly half of all school age children fix their own breakfast at least twice a week.

ABC officer named

James Lee Madden, 45, has been appointed to replace Sam Motley, who retired in March. Madden was sworn in Tuesday May 3 to take the position of County ABC officer. Madden brings with him two years experience as a Hoke deputy sheriff and one year of experience as a Raeford Police officer. Although he is originally from Ohio, Madden has been living in Hoke County for over 20 years. According to Madden, the first order of business will be to "get to know all the store owners he will be working with as well as the public. "I'm really looking forward to this new job. I love working with the law enforcement," Madden said.
