Miss Winchester, Mr. Crowder Wed In Methodist Church Ceremony

Miss Patricia Ann Winchester and Charles Greer Crowder spoke their wedding vows Sunday, May 15, at a ceremony at the Raeford United Methodist Church, at 4:00 p.m. The Rev. Herman S. Winberry, former pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The altar flowers were multi-colored daisies and pink and white snapdragons. Two seven-branched candelabra and two fifteen-branched candelabra, entwined with daisy chains holding white candles, and two white wicker wedding baskets with mammoth Boston ferns, graced each side of the altar. Candles and multi-colored daisies were used to mark family pews. Arrangements of springari and gypsophila, centered with a candle, adorned the windows in the sanctuary.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Stephen McNeill, organist, and Kenneth Koonce, soloist. The processional hymn, "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell, and the recessional hymn "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn were used. Mr. Koonce sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a wedding gown of poly organza with Venice lace trim, featuring a sweetheart neckline and bishop sleeves. The ruffled flounce skirt, trimmed with Venice lace, extended into a cathedral train.

Her matching lace mantilla was attached to a Camelot cap, and extended to walking length.

She carried a bridal cascade bouquet of multi-colored daisies with gypsophila.

Miss Lisa Huffman served as maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of chiffon over taffeta in cinnamon. The gown featured a draped neckline, full A-line skirt with ribbon tie belt. Her hairpiece was made of white daisies and gypsophila, and her arm bouquet was of multi-colored daisies and gypsophila.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sandra Stogner, and Misses Angela Strother, Pamela Wood, Deborah Tolin and Carolyn Wilburn. They wore gowns and arm bouquets identical to the maid of honor.

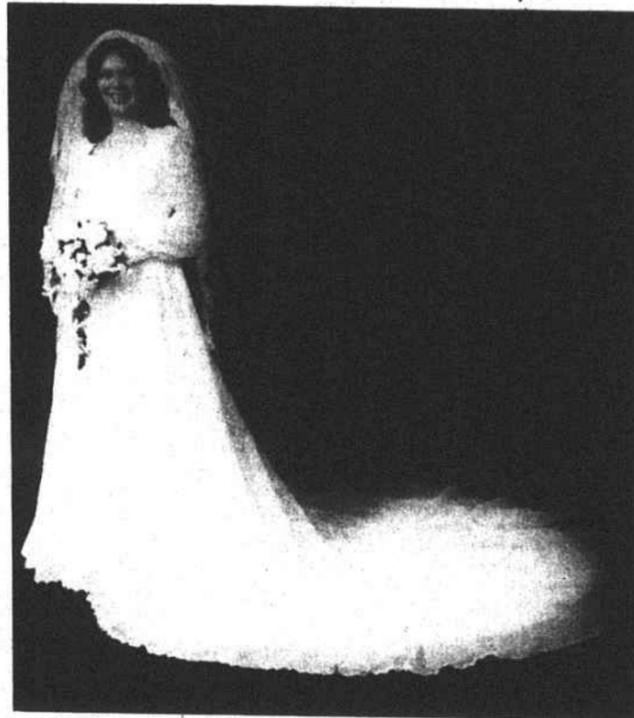

Tracey Williamson was flower girl. She wore a white formal gown, and carried a white wicker basket, trimmed with pink bows and satin streamers, and filled with rose petals.

The groom was attended by Samuel Crowder as best man. He wore a yellow double rose boutonniere. The father of the bride also wore a yellow rose boutonniere.

Groomsmen were Franklin Williamson, Robert Stogner, Will Johnson, Charles Winchester, Jerry Tucker and Archie Crowder. They wore a white daisy boutonniere.

Jamie Bell served as ring bearer. He wore a white carnation boutonniere, and carried a white satin ring pillow.

The mother of the bride chose a formal gown of dusty rose with matching lace jacket. The groom's mother wore a formal gown of mint green with matching chiffon cape. They both wore corsages of white orchids.

Mrs. Charles Greer Crowder

Mrs. Franklin Crumpler directed the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Winchester. She is a 1981 graduate of Hoke County High School, attended Peace College and is currently enrolled in Pembroke State University.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Orville Eugene Crowder and the late Mr. Crowder. He is a 1972 graduate of Hoke County High School, and is currently employed with Carolina Tile Distributors, Inc., of Charlotte, as a sales representative.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents in the church fellowship hall. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Minshew, and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Crowder.

The refreshment table was centered with a silver candelabra with an arrangement of multi-colored daisies. The wedding cake was decorated with daisies and gypsophila.

Mrs. Robert G. Townsend and Miss Ethelynde Ballance presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Alfred K. Leach and Miss Susan Townsend cut and served the cake. Tea girls were Misses Larinda Butler, Mollie Upchurch, Wendy Wood and Ann Mercer.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. William Freeman, aunt of the bride, and Miss Marie Freeman, cousin of the bride. Pink daisies in a pink crystal bud vase adorned the register table.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Raz Autry and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tucker.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. Mrs. Crowder's traveling costume was a gray and white sundress with matching jacket, gray shoes and accessories.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The groom and his mother, hosted the after rehearsal dinner at the Edinborough Restaurant Saturday evening. A centerpiece of large irises were used on the honored couple's table.

Approximately 40 guests were seated for a roast beef dinner with accessories.

The groom presented the groomsmen and other members of the wedding party with gifts.

BRIDESMAIDS LUNCHEON

Mrs. Lewis Upchurch, Jr., Mrs. Jack Tucker, Mrs. Eddie Ramsey and Mrs. Reggie Frahm were hostesses at a luncheon honoring the bride-elect and her bridesmaids at the home of Mrs. J.W. Walker, Saturday, May 14.

The dining table and smaller tables were covered with Army-Navy white cloths over pink with satin streamers. Pink and white arrangements of mixed flowers centered the tables.

Guests were seated for a three-course luncheon.

Miss Winchester presented her attendants with gifts. She was remembered with gifts from the hostesses.

Births
