Frick - Byrd Vows Spoken In Albemarle

On Sunday, May 22, a candlight service before an altar decorated with daisies and ferns at Prospect Baptist Church in Albemarle, of Lisa Diana Frick and Ellis Kemp Byrd exchanged wedding vows. Rev. Edward Lowder, pastor of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Lisa is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph Frick of New London, N.C. and the late Mr. Ralph Frick. She is a graduate of North Stanly High School and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she majored in business administration.

Kemp is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Huey I. Byrd of Aberdeen. He is a graduate of Hoke County High School, Sandhills Community College and University of North Carolina at Charlotte where he majored in computer science. He is employed with Harris Teeter Supermarkets Inc. at Charlotte.

Mrs. Eddie H. Huneycutt, organist, provided a program of wedding music. Mark Morris, soloist, sang "The Wedding Song," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Ellis Kemp Byrd

Byrd; brother of the bridegroom; and Steven King, brother-in-law of the bride.

Virginia Byrd, sister of the bridegroom, served as register attendant and greeted the guests upon arrival. She wore a mint green floor-length polyester dress with a white carnation corsage.

Colleen Frick, sister-in-law of the bride, directed the wedding.

The bridal couple and the wedding party spoke with each guest in the front of the church after the wedding.

After a wedding trip to the beach, the couple will make their home in Charlotte.

The rehearsal was on Saturday evening, May 21. After the rehearsal, the cake cutting was held in the church fellowship hall, given by the brides mother. The bride and bridegroom chose this time to honor each attendant with a gift.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Frick, and children from Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hall of King, N.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Byrd, and children of Orrum, N.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ivey of Proctorville; Mr. and Mrs. John Ferrell and Jeannette, Fuquay-Varina; and Virginia Byrd, Forrest City, Ark.

Friendship Club Holds Meeting On June 7

The Raeford Friendship Club met Tuesday, June 7 at the Raeford United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Ellen Heidenreich in song. Mrs. Heidenreich, who teaches the Upchurch Jr. High School Chorus, sang several selections.

Prayer was led by Leonard Miler. Mrs. Janie Ramsey was welcomed back to the club. Cards for the sick were mailed to several members.

It was announced at the meeting that noon meals will be furnished to Senior Citizens at McLaughlin School five days a week during the summer. It was also announced that a Bingo Party will be held June 29 at the Parks and Recreation Dept at 2 p.m.

Several members volunteered to take a mixture of canned goods and other foods to Mrs. Catherine Phillips, a members, who has been sick.

A list of hostesses for next year was presented by Mrs. Bertie Haire.

Kelly Weathers

Weathers - Miller

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Weathers of Southern Pines announce the engagement of their daughter Kelly to Mr. M. Glenn Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl L. Miller of Raeford. Glenn is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dean of Cumberland and the late Mr. William M. Davis.

A July 30 wedding is planned.

Junior Woman's Club Ends Year

Raeford Junior Woman's Club celebrated the end of their club year with a dinner at the JFR Barn in Southern Pines, June 4.

President Jane Britt welcomed members and their husbands to a superb steak diner, salad bar, and all the trimmings.

Betty Odom, historian, delivered the devotion before the meal. After members and guests had dined, Gwen Booker provided entertainment with a hilarious account of the club members as they might appear in the year 1998. New members Donna O'Brian and Verna Barnhill presented the "Citizenship Award" and "Club Woman of the Year" award. Receiving the citizenship award was Sonya Falls. Club Woman of the Year was Gwen Booker. Each recipient was given the traditional silver bowl which accompanies this award. A special award was given this year to one of the husbands of a club member. Receiving a gift certificate was Larry Lippard, for his extra help given to the club's Bingo games. His homemade Bingo machine helped the club realize a nice profit from the games.

President Jane Britt presented this award after which First Vice President Connie Ferguson adjourned the meeting.
