Miss Ivey, Mr. Barnes Speak Vows

Miss Pamela Gay Ivey and Kenneth Julian Barnes were married Sunday afternoon May 22, in a three o'clock ceremony at Raeford United Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. David Sutton, the groom's pastor, of Galatia Presbyterian Church.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard "Doc" Ivey of Raeford. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Julian Barnes and the late Mr. Barnes of Rockfish.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Janet Best, organist and vocalists, Julie Frazier and Joy and Sam Warren. The bride also sang a song which she composed.

The church decor included an altar arrangement of lavender and white roses, lavender carnations, white and lavender snapdragons, freezia, white astromeria lillies, wheat, allium and liatris. Two standing white wicker baskets held identical arrangements of flowers. Two seven-branched candelabra and two fifteen branch candelabra were used on each side of the altar. The seven branch was adorned with springeri, wheat, and lavender bows. The fifteen branch was also adorned with springeri. The windows of the church were decorated with Hurricane Globes, candles and springeri.

The bride wore an empire style gown of white silk chiffon featuring a venice lace bodice and chapel train. Her matching lace illusion veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of alencon lace and rosettes of pearls extending around the waltz length illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of silk roses.

Mrs. Lynn Upchurch of Lumberton was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a formal gown of lavender, fashioned with a chiffon overlay. Miss Wendy Ivey, also sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Both carried a white lace fan with silk lavender flowers and lavender streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kathy Dawson, and Mrs. Beth Spivey, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Jane Davis and Mrs. Marilyn Overcash, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Sandy Barnes of Rockfish, and Mrs. Cheryl Rouse of Kinston. Attendants wore gowns identical to the honor attendants and carried identical fans.

Paul Barnes served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Mark Ivey of Raeford, brother of the bride; Earl Dawson of Durham, Allen Spivey of Zebulon, David Upchurch of Lumberton, Jeff Davis of Charlotte, Craig Overcash of Mooresville, and John Rouse of Kinston.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of light blue chiffon. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length gown of peacock blue.

Miss Ginger Cummings of Pine Tops, registered guests as they entered the church.

The bride will graduate in June from East Carolina University, where she will receive a Bachelor degree in Music Education. The bridegroom graduated from North Carolina State University from the agricultural institute. He is self-employed with Barnes Farms.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the

Mrs. Kenneth Julian Barnes

Fellowship Hall of the church. The bridal couple cut the first slice from the four tiered cake which was decorated with lavender roses. Each tier was adorned with flowers consisting of lavender and white roses, wheat, lavender carnations, and allium. Misses Hope Tolar of Princeton and Annette Schmitt of Rocky Mount, served the cake. Punch was served by Miss Sally Maxwell of Raeford, and Miss Crystal Jones of Garner. Assisting in serving were Miss Ann Richards, Miss Meredith Warren, Miss Kim Colston and Miss Carol Colston.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sellars and goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Dees, uncle of the groom. The guest register was kept by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Robert Ritter.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mrs. Julian Barnes entertained the wedding party with a dinner party at the Lob Steer Inn in Southern Pines on Saturday night after the rehearsal. Thirty three guests were present.

BRIDESMAIDS' LUNCHEON

On Saturday Mrs. Willis Sellars and her daughter Jane Collier, Sylvia Liestman, Delia Gilmore and Catherine McNeill (all in absentia) hosted a luncheon for Miss Gay Ivey, her bridesmaids, and special guests at the home of Mrs. John W. Walker. The entertaining rooms were decorated with spring flowers.

The honoree's table, covered with a white cloth crisscrossed with pink ribbons, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of pink roses. Small bouquets of mixed spring flowers centered the side tables.

Sixteen guests enjoyed the delicious three-course meal, after which Miss Ivey presented gifts to her attendants.

A gift of crystal in her chosen pattern was given Miss Ivey by the hostesses.

Ken and Cecelia Weston and Wayne and Frances Byrd of Raeford aboard the luxurious Emerald Seas sailing from downtown Miami to the Bahamas. Photo was taken poolside, just before departure. Passengers enjoyed the outdoor French cafe, discotheque, beautiful lounges, staterooms complete with closed circuit t.v. and music, all meals aboard ship.
