Chorus exchange
Members of the Turlington School Chorus exchanged performances with a Fayetteville school recently. Shown here are the members of the Hoke school performing Alice in Wonderland.

Turlington Chorus Takes Part In Choral Exchange With Ramsey

The J.W. Turlington Chorus of Raeford and the Ramsey Street Elementary Chorus of Fayetteville participated in a choral exchange program. The transportation for both groups was provided by Hardee's through the Division of Arts Education.

On May 31, the Ramsey Street Elementary Chorus presented a program of choral sections to the student body of J.W. Turlington School.

The Ramsey Street Chorus has 55 members from the fourth and fifth grades. They are under the direction of Miss Beth Wood. Mr. Donald Dixon, principal and several teachers traveled with the group.

The Turlington Chorus performed Alice in Wonderland and several choral sections to the Ramsey Street student body on June 1.

Amy Wilson Honored

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Amy Wilson of Raeford has been named a 1983 United States National Award winner in history and government.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Amy, who attends Hoke High was nominated for this National Award by Sarah F. McCallum, History teacher at the school.

This honor will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Amy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ferguson. Her grandparent is Lois Austin of Raeford.

Three Raeford Students Named To UNC Dean's List

Three students from Raeford made the spring 1983 dean's list at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

To make the dean's list, a student must earn a 3.2 grade average on the 4.0 scale while taking 15 or more letter grade hours of credit, or a 3.5 average while taking at least 12 letter grade hours (with no grade below a C).

The students are: Robert Kevin Davis of N. Jackson St., Donald Steven Matthews and Mary Catherine Sappenfield of 309 Old Farm Rd.

Davis Takes Part In Navy Exercises

Navy Boatswain's Mate 3rd Class Edgar J. Davis, son of Betty J. and Hubert S. Davis Sr. of Route 1, Raeford, recently participated in exercise "National Week" in the Mediterranean Sea.

He is a crewmember aboard the guided missile frigate USS Clifton Sprague, homeported in Mayport, Fla.

National Week was an eight-day U.S. Sixth Fleet exercise involving approximately 20 ships and more than 200 carrier and land-based U.S. Navy aircraft.

The exercise tested naval warfare responses to a multi-threat air, surface ship and submarine environment.

The chorus consists of 95 members under the direction of Mrs. Vickey Elliott and accompanied by Mrs. Betty Upchurch. The Turlington Chorus was chaperoned by Miss Emma Mims, principal; Mrs. Mary Archie McNeill, Fine Arts Coordinator; Mrs. Betty Upchurch and Miss Hope Williams, teachers; and Mrs. Irma Hedgepeth, a parent.

Bundy Named To Wingate Dean's List

James Michael Bundy of Rt. 2, Raeford has been named to the Dean's List at Wingate College for the spring semester of 1983.

Students must have carried 12 or more hours of academic work, have had no grade below a C, and have made at least a 3.3 grade point average (g.p.a.) to qualify for the Dean's List.

A 4.0 g.p.a. is a perfect mark.

Dees Takes Part In Navy Exercise

Navy Machinist's Mate Third Class Melvin L. Dees Jr., son of Rachel W. and Melvin L. Dees Sr. of Route 2, Raeford, recently participated in "Comptuex 2-83," a training exercise conducted in the Virginia Capes Operating Area, off the East Coast of the United States.

He is a crewmember aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Dewey homeported in Charleston, S.C.

The exercise was designed to increase crew proficiency of participating ships, submarine and aircraft in coordinated fleet operations.

Training was conducted in anti-air, anti-submarine and anti-surface warfare. Several "war at sea" and surface action group operations took place in which simulated battles were conducted between opposing sides, each composed of surface, air and submarine forces. Part of the exercise included surface-to air live missile firings against remote-controlled drone targets, along with surface-to air and surface-to surface gunnery training.

Additional training focused on seamanship, navigation, replenishment at sea, and mine countermeasures.

The Dewey is 513 feet long and carries a crew of 377.
