International Folk Festival Planned For Fayetteville

Bert Esworthy, Chairman of the Fayetteville International Folk Festival, announced that the fifth annual International Folk Festival will be on Sunday, OCTOBER 9.

The featured nationality will be Germans, to celebrate the 300th anniversary of German settlement in North America.

The Festival will be preceded by a VOLKSMARCH open to everybody, with awards to those who complete the walk around the scenic neighborhoods of Fayetteville.

and 2, and is being coordinated by the Fayetteville area German Club. The German Club is also holding an OKTOBERFEST on the following Saturday (October 8).

The featured German band will be "The Bavarians" from Virginia. There will be dinner, dance and prizes. Tickets will be available from the German Club.

The Parade of Nations and Bands will take place at 3 p.m., to be followed immediately by the welcoming ceremony and presentation of awards. After the ceremony the entertainment, foods, crafts and games will again be available.

All nationalities and ethnic groups are welcomed to participate in the International Folk Festival. Volunteers who want to work with or join an ethnic or national organization may call Joan Allen at 483-2073 or Patrick Valentine at 483-5022 for further information.
