Mr. And Mrs. Younger Snead Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Younger Snead

Mr. and Mrs. Younger Snead were honored on their fiftieth wedding anniversary, Sunday, June 12. Hosts were their children and spouses, Mr. and Mrs. Younger Snead, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. John Goller of Greensboro.

The celebration took place at the poolside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Younger Snead, Jr. Surrounding the pool were beautiful spring flowers in pink, yellows and greens. It was a lovely setting for the outdoor drop-in during the afternoon.

Refreshments were served from an appointed table, appropriately decorated, near the pool.

Many friends and relatives called to share the occasion with the honored couple.

Among the out of town Snead relatives coming for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Snead, Red Springs, Mrs. Jewel Snead Klouse and friend Hazel Wintzer, Myrtle Beach, and Mrs. Dora Snead Chapman, Aberdeen.

Miss Lee Wilson, Debutante, Honored

Miss Lee Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson of Fayetteville, one of eleven young women from Fayetteville to make their bow before society at the 57th annual North Carolina Debutante Ball at the Raleigh Civic Center, September 9, was honoree at a party given at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Poole, Saturday evening, July 9. Co-hosting the affair were the honoree's parents, Bob Wilson is Managing Editor of The Fayetteville Observer, and Mrs. Wilson is the former Elizabeth Graham, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arch Graham of Raeford.

The hosts presented the honoree a corsage and a scrapbook to keep records of the September 8-10 festivities for the statewide debutante ball, sponsored by the Terpsichorean Club, and the string of weekend parties across the state.

Fowler Family Has Picnic At Gatlin Pond

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fowler and family joined Sunday by members of Mr. Fowler's family for a get-together and picnic at the Robert Gatlin pond.

Attending from out of town were Mr. Fowler's father, P.D. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Fowler, and members of their family, all of Lumberton.

Correction

In last week's NewsJournal a picture of Miss Susan Maria Godwin appeared, along with her engagement announcement to Robert Clifford Bostic, Jr.

One sentence, "An Invitation is extended to friends and relatives of the couple", was omitted. We apologize for this error.

The wedding is planned for Sunday, August 7, at 3 p.m. at North Lumberton Baptist Church. No invitations are being mailed.

Edwards - Adams Couple Exchanges Wedding Vows

Miss Mary Evelyn Adams, daughter of Euclid G. Adams and the late Mrs. Adams of Laurinburg, and Roger Dale Edwards, son of Mrs. John R. Edwards and the late Mrs. Edwards of Roseboro, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony, Sunday, July 17, at 2:30 p.m., at the First United Methodist Church in Laurinburg. The Reverend Ben H. Wilson, III, officiated.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Louise Leach, organist, and Mrs. Betty Aldridge, soloist. Mrs. Aldridge sang "Song of Ruth", and "Wedding Prayer".

The altar of the church was centered with mixed white flowers, flanked by white tapers in brass candelabras.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of silk organza over taffeta with Venice lace shaping the empire bodice. Queen Ann neckline and bishop sleeves were trimmed with small organza ruffles. The A-line skirt was circle flounced with a ruffle extending into chapel train. The matching two-tiered veil of imported silk illusion, trimmed with Venice lace, was attached to her pearl beaded cap. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and white stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Adams, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a white silk blouse and a deep rose linen skirt, accented with deep aqua sash, and carried a casual bouquet of white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Henrietta Adams, sister of the bride, Wilson; Mrs. Emily Aberle, cousin of the bride, Asheville; Mrs. Betty Cadick, High Point; Mrs. Becky McKeithan, Laurinburg; and Mrs. Margaret Ledford, Hope Mills. They wore costumes and carried flowers identical to the maid of honor.

Thomas F. Jones of Wagram served as best man. Ushers were Kent Edwards and Michael Edwards, brothers of the groom, Roseboro; Frank Adams, cousin of the bride, Wadesboro; Walter Barnhill, Raeford; and Steve Hagen, Red Springs.

The bride is a graduate of Scotland County High School, Laurinburg, and Appalachian State University, Boone. She is employed by Hoke County Health Department as Health Educator.

The groom is a graduate of Salemburg High School, Roseboro, an undergraduate of East Carolina University, Greenville, and graduate school of Western Carolina University. He is employed by the Hoke County School System as a teacher-coach at Hoke County High School.

Mrs. Roger Dale Edwards

After a honeymoon trip to St. Simon Island, Georgia, the couple will reside at East Prospect Avenue, Raeford.

RECEPTION

A reception was hosted by the bride's father at the Scotch Meadows Country Club in Laurinburg. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Alford and Mr. and Mrs. Lance Gibson.

Refreshments were served from an appointed table appropriately decorated. Punch was poured by Mrs. Frank Adams and Mrs. Bill Adams. The cake was served by Mrs. Robert Southall and Mrs. Roberta Dunbar. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Erwin Adams and Mrs. Louie Adams. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adams.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The after rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Herb McKeithan and
