Miller-Weathers Couple Wed In Southern Pines

Mrs. Myrl L. Miller

Kelly Weathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Weathers of Southern Pines, and Myrl Glenn Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl L. Miller of Raeford were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony, Saturday, July 30 at 5:00 p.m. at the Church of Wide Fellowship in Southern Pines. The Rev. Michael Garber officiated.

A program of pre-nuptial music was presented by Kristy Weathers, flutist and sister of the bride and organist Paul Long.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a candlelight antique satin gown dating from the late 1940's, featuring a Venetian bust line, princess line sleeves and an eight foot train. She also wore a candlelight head piece with a two tier veil that was loaned to her by Lisa Goldsmith. She carried a bouquet of white silk roses, spirea, and dusty rose gypsophyllia.

Mrs. Kim Lund, of Long Beach, New Jersey, attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a gown of burgundy silk with a chiffon overlay at the bodice.

Bridesmaids, wearing matching gowns of drape rose silk with a chiffon overlay at the bodice and carrying identical bouquets of wine silk French lilies, dusty rose gypsophyllia and dior blue stephanotis, were: Miss Donna Doherty of Foxboro, Mass.; Mrs. Martha Vigneault of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Kathy Malone of Henderson; and Miss Carolyn Spring of Winston-Salem.

Ken Fentress of Durham served as best man. Groomsmen were John Hudson of Erwin, John Miller and Leon Miller of Raeford, brothers of the groom, and Clint Weathers, brother of the bride.

Megan Allen attended as flower girl and Leon Miller Jr., nephew of the groom, attended as ringbearer.

A reception for the couple was held at the Sheraton Inn immediately after the ceremony. The bride's book was kept by Lisa Goldsmith. A three tier wedding cake was made and served by Mrs. Robert Ferguson. Punch was served by Mrs. Jan Fentress of Durham and Miss Diane Starks of Fayetteville. Music for the reception was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weatherspoon.

The couple left amidst a shower of birdseed thrown from silk roses made by Mrs. William Hearn, aunt of the bride, and climbed into a 1929 Model A., owned and chauffeured by Mr. Floyd Hollingsworth of Raeford.

Following a wedding trip to the Golden Isles, the couple will reside in Aberdeen.

The bride graduated from North Carolina State's School of Design and is employed by C.H. Yow Construction, Inc. The groom is a graduate of Pembroke State University and is employed by Carolina Galvanizing Corporation.

Rehearsal dinner

The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myrl L. Miller hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Pinecrest Inn in Pinehurst on Friday night. The bride and groom chose this time to give gifts to their parents and attendants.

A brunch for out of town guests was held at the home of the bride Saturday at noon.
