Sisk-Frantz Vows Exchanged In Dillon

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Sisk

Diane Rene Franzt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bailey of Fayetteville and Jerry L. Sisk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sisk of Rockfish were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony, Saturday, July 30 at 2:00 p.m. in the Wedding Chapel in Dillon, South Carolina.

The bride wore a baby blue lace dress and carried a bridal cascade of spring flowers.

Mrs. Anne Willis of Fayetteville attended as matron of honor and Gene McMurray served as the groom's best man.

The matron of honor was attired in a pastel pink dress and carried a pink and white bouquet of flowers.

The bride's mother wore a mint green dress and a white corsage. The mother of the groom was attired in a dress of grape chiffon and also wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held for the couple at the home of the groom on Myra Road.

Large white satin bows adorned the entrance to the lawn. The great room was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers. The dining room table was adorned with a six branch candelabra that also held sweetheart roses, springia, yellow and white daisies and miniature blue carnations.

Dianne Green of Kannapolis cut and served the two tier blue and white wedding cake and Miss Cheryl Hathcock presided at the punch bowl.

In addition to wedding cake there were finger sandwiches, ham and cheese tidbits, nuts, mints, pickles and olives.

The guests signed the register upon entering and goodbyes were said to the bride and groom.

The couple will make their home in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Merline Weeks, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Green of Kannapolis, grandparents of the groom, were among the out-of-town guests who attended.
