Sports

ROAD RACE -- On Saturday, October 1, the 1983 "Run for the Children" will be held on the Campbell University campus. Each race will follow a course around the campus. The one mile "Fun Run" will start at 9:30 a.m. and medals will be given to the first three finishers. The five-kilometer and ten-kilometer runs will follow. The first two male and female finishers in each of these races will also be awarded medals. The first place winner in the 10-kilometer race will receive a trophy. Awards will be given during a special ceremony to be held at noon on the field adjacent to Carter Gymnasium. A drawing for free merchandise will be conducted at the beginning of the program. Guest speakers include Senator Robert Morgan; Dr. Norman Wiggins, president of Campbell University; and Dr. C.L. Turpin, superintendent of Falcon Children's Home. The entry fee for the race will be $5 through September 26. After that date, until the day of the race, October 1, the fee will be $6. The "Run for the Children" is officially certified and sanctioned by the Athletics Congress of North Carolina. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mr. Phillip Melvin, dean of men at Campbell. Telephone 893-4111, extension 226 or 229.

KING MACKEREL -- Entries are now being accepted for the 1983 U.S. Open King Mackerel Tournament held October 6, 7 and 8 from the Southport Marina with $15,000 going to the first prize winner. Entry deadline is October 5; however, all boats entered prior to that date will be eligible to win free entry as "Early Birds" in the 1984 tournament. Registration fee is $150.00 per boat and all checks should be made payable to U.S. Open King Mackerel Tournament, Rt. 5, Box 52, Southport, N.C. 28461. Further information may also be obtained by writing the Southport-Oak Island Chamber of Commerce at Star Rt. 1, Box 52, Southport, N.C. 28461.

PEE DEE DEER HUNT -- A limited, permit-only, gun-hunt for deer will be held on the Pee Dee National Wildlife Refuge in Anson and Richmond counties this fall. The gun season will run from November 21-22 and November 25-26, and the bag limit will be one deer of either sex. The archery season on the refuge will run through October 8 in Richmond County and through November 12 in Anson County. No permit is required for archery hunters.

Blazons

BINGO -- Raeford Junior Woman's Club will sponsor bingo games at the Civic Center the first Saturday in each month (except December). Games will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. A variety of games are played, including a split pot, and a jackpot of $50 is given away each night. Refreshments are available and all proceeds are used for Hoke County charities.

NEW BROCHURES -- Copies of the new City-County Brochure are hot off the press and available to anyone. Brochures can be picked up at the Raeford-Hoke Chamber of Commerce.

CRAFTSMEN FAIR -- Carolina Designer Craftsmen and its Standards Committee invite all interested craftsmen to submit work for judging in the Fall Jurying to be held Saturday, October 1 at the Christ Episcopal Church, 120 East Edenton Street, Raleigh. Applications for jurying and additional information may be obtained by writing Carolina Designer Craftsmen, P.O. Box 5974, Raleigh, N.C. 27650 or by telephoning CDC at (919) 851-2901.

CHRISTMAS PARADE -- The Raeford Merchants Association will sponsor the annual Merchant's Christmas Parade, Saturday, Dec. 3 at 2 p.m. All persons, groups, clubs, or organizations in the area that wish to participate in the parade are urged to do so. No entry fee is charged for those wishing to march but each parade entry must be identified by name and must be in keeping with the general theme. All those wishing to enter the parade must have their names in no later than Nov. 11. There will be no exceptions. For more information contact Parade chairman Raz Autry at 875-3787 or 875-4284.

FOOD STAMPS -- The Hoke County Department of Social Services has announced that food stamps will be mailed two to five days late for the month of October. This situation is caused by the Department's transition for a county system to the North Carolina Food Stamp Information System. The Department asks that recipients not call because this will cause further delays in processing the stamps. Ken Witherspoon further stated that food stamps will be mailed after the fifth of the month.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED -- The Hoke County School System wants and urges the public to volunteer to work within the county school system. People are needed to help keep school grounds clean, to provide technical advice, to help with school functions and field trips, and to give talks to students. Anyone interested in volunteering to be a school volunteer should contact the school principal at the facility they wish to work in. The help does not have to be within the classroom. Everyone is urged to participate and help "better the schools."
