

Rolling out the sausage

Close watch
Kiwianian David Howell keeps a close watch on the pancakes cooking for the hundreds of hungry Raeford and Hoke residents who turned out for the pancake supper.

Riding with Mrs. Claus
At least 10 children climbed on board the Raeford Merchants' Association float to be Santa's best partner in hopes of dropping a few hints in her ear about what they wanted old Saint Nick to leave at their homes.

Explaining the rules
Kiwianian John Plummer (center) explains the rules and procedures of the $500 reverse raffle during Thursday night's Pancake Supper that netted the Kiwanis Club over $3,800. Although the exact amount had not been totaled, one Kiwanian said the money raised was more than they had expected. Raeford Police Officer James Murdock (left) drew the 150 names during the raffle.
