David L. Parker

Parker Is Weave Mill Plant Supt.

David L. Parker has been named Weave Mill Superintendent for the Raeford Plant of the Menswear Division of Burlington Industries, Inc. He is a native of Jacksonville.

He joined Burlington as a Manufacturing Trainee in 1974 at the St. Pauls Plant in St. Pauls, and was reassigned that same year to the Lakedale Plant in Fayetteville as Supervisor in the Twisting Department.

In 1975 he was transferred to the Clarksville Finishing Plant in Clarksville, Virginia, where he was assigned supervisory positions in the Dyeing, Wet Finishing and Dry Finishing Departments.

In 1976 he was promoted to Dry Finishing Department Manager and in 1977 was reassigned as Dyeing Department Manager.

In 1978 he was promoted to Superintendent of Dyeing and later reassigned as Superintendent of Finishing and Technical Superintendent.

In 1982 he was transferred to the Oxford Plant where he held positions as Superintendent of Winding/Twisting and Superintendent of Preparation/Spinning.

On December 1, he was transferred to the Raeford Plant and assigned his present position as Weave Mill Superintendent.

Parker graduated in 1973 from North Carolina State University in Raleigh, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering Operations.

He is married to the former Brenda Williamson of Raleigh, North Carolina.

They have two daughters.

Ezell Returns From Grenada

Navy Lt. Richard L. Ezell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Jones of Route 2, Raeford, recently participated in Operation Urgent Fury on Grenada.

He is an officer assigned to Atlantic Fleet Audio Visual Command, Naval Air Station Norfolk, Virginia.

Urgent Fury was a joint operation of the United States and the organization of Eastern Caribbean States to rescue American citizens, restore order and protect lives and property on Grenada as well as encourage in the formation of a democratic government on the island.

Elements of the U.S. Marine Corps, Navy, Army, and Air Force operated in unison during the operation.
