Raeford native promotes husband's campaign

Raeford native Sarah Jordan, wife of State Senator Bob Jordan, (left) chats with other city and county residents during a tea held at the Hoke County Library. The tea was held for Jordan who was in town promoting her husband's candidacy for the North Carolina Lt. Governor's seat. Nearly 300 residents turned out for the tea. Jordan was in town himself last week. "Hoke County is important to me. I feel like it is home," he said during an interview. Jordan sees the Lt. Governor as being a leader in the state for better education and more jobs. Jordan also supports a full time Lt. Governor, and sees the job as going beyond the presiding officer's role in the state Senate.

Stewart keeping race close

Former Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives Carl Stewart is running neck-and-neck with Bob Jordan for the Democratic Party nomination for Lt. Governor.

Stewart was a member of the North Carolina House of Representatives from the 38th District (Gaston and Lincoln Counties) from 1967-80.

He was elected Speaker of the House in January 1977 and re-elected in January 1979.

Stewart graduated from Ashley High School in Gastonia, 1954 and won four-year Firestone Scholarship to any college or university in the nation. He enrolled at Duke University and graduated with a degree in history in 1958 as Phi Beta Kappa, Captain of Debating Team, Atlantic Coast Conference Debating Champion, member of Omicron Delta Kappa (national leadership honorary), member of Tau Kappa Alpha (national debating honorary), and as a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

He also won full scholarship to Duke Law School and graduated in 1961 as President of Senior Class.

VOTE
MAY 8

KEEP
DANIEL H. DeVANE
N.C. HOUSE

Thank you Hoke County voters for the strong vote that allowed Representative Daniel H. DeVane to serve you in Raleigh. That strong vote along with the generous vote from Robeson and Scotland Counties made it possible to have the first representative from Hoke or Scotland to serve in ten years.

Again we ask that you help send Daniel H. DeVane back to Raleigh to continue to serve us and to utilize the experience that he gained as a freshman legislator.

A vote for Daniel H. DeVane is a vote for experience and seniority.
