Yolanda Cook is promoted

Yolanda Cook, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Cook of E. Prospect Avenue in Raeford, has been promoted to the grade of Sp4.

She is an Administrative Specialist, stationed at Fort Story, a sub-installation at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

She has been in the Army for 21 months.

She is a 1981 graduate of Hoke County High School.

Slade completes Marine course

Marine Pfc. Billy Slade Jr., son of Algie L. Bratcher of Wooley Street, Raeford, has completed the Administrative Clerk's Course.

The four-week course was conducted at Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, Calif. The course was designed to provide students with the basic skills and knowledge to perform as administrative clerks.

Students received instruction on typing, preparation of naval correspondence and were introduced to the basic office functions, such as filing, performed by all Marine Corps administrative sections.

Cook arrives for Army duty in W. Germany

Army Pvt. Joseph G. Cook, son of Dorothy W. Cook of E. Prospect Avenue, Raeford, has arrived for duty in Giessen, West Germany.

Cook, a cannon crewman with the 5th Battalion, 3rd Field Artillery, was previously assigned at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

He is a 1982 graduate of Hoke County High School.

Too hot for rabbits

Cooling off under a few grape vines seems more appealing to this beagle than spending the 90° afternoon running rabbits. A cooler fall day, just after the hunting season opens, might be more attractive to this bunny hound. (Photo by Rebecca Jones)

Foursome takes heart tourney

The four-man team of Jim Fisher, David Hendrix, Bill Lentz and Jim Tatum won the Hoke County Heart Association Golf Tournament held last week at Arabia Golf Course.

The foursome had a score of 121 in the 18-hole best net 2 of 4 balls format, according to Rebecca Smith, Fundraising Chairperson of the Hoke County Heart Association.

Steve Parker of Southern National Bank was co-chairperson for the event.

The second place foursome consisted of Scott Poole, Joey Warren, Billy Owen and Melvin Brown.

Finishing in third place were Lawrence Bullard, Charles Crowder, Chris McDuffie and Billy Monroe.

In fourth place were Earl McDuffie, Billy Lester, Clyde Register and Randall Ashburn.

Following the tournament, members of the Hoke County Heart Association thanked Gene Carter who donated the trophies; Aberdeen Bottling Company who donated Cokes; Brandi Gardener and Johna Nixon for helping serve refreshments; Brown and Kathy Hendrix for technical assistance and Steve Parker and Southern National Bank for help in organizing the tournament.

The tournament raised $425.00 which goes toward the Hoke County Heart Association's fund-raising campaign.
