28 exhibitors on tap for Family Fun Frolic

At least 28 local businesses, clubs and organizations will be on hand with exhibits for Hoke County's Family Fun Frolic, to be held at Hoke High School.

Primarily sponsored by the Hoke County Agricultural Extension Service, the fun will begin 10 a.m. on March 30.

The festival will end at 2 p.m. Admission is free and children will be given a chance to register for a free trip to 4-H camp this summer.

The Frolic will climax Focus on the Family Week which runs from March 24-30.

The circus is coming

The smell of cotton candy and fresh hot popcorn; the sounds of exotic animal calls and the flapping canvas of the big top; the feel of sawdust under foot. Summer days and excitement have been the special call for over 200 years in America of America's favorite form of entertainment, the circus! The Franzen Brothers Circus and the Raeford Kiwanis Club, your local circus sponsors, invite you and your family to be a kid again at the circus, the show for children of all ages. Franzen Brothers Circus will arrive in Raeford on Tuesday, April 16 for two big shows at 5:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. The ballfield at Old Armory Park is the site for this year's circus and everyone is invited out early circus day to witness the unloading of the circus animals and the setting up of the big top. Come about 11:00 a.m. Treat your family to an old-fashioned tented circus without any midway attractions or side shows. This is truly a family show in the best of the circus tradition. You will want to get your circus tickets early at the following locations: Western Auto, Howell Drug, The News-Journal or from any Kiwanis Club member. Tickets go on sale on Thursday, March 21. Advance Ticket Prices are: children under 2 years FREE, children 2 years to 13 years $3, adults 14 to 65 years $4 and V.I.P.s 65 years plus $3.
