

4-H . . . More Than You Ever Imagined

Matthew Williamson is shown here with his lamb, Tiger. The 4-H Lamb Show was held September 23 and was sponsored by Farm Chemicals.

Larry & Brian Williams are shown here with 4-H members during the 4-H Horse Clinic. The event was part of the 4-H Summer Fun Program.

Hoke County Youth Takes Prize At Sewing Contest

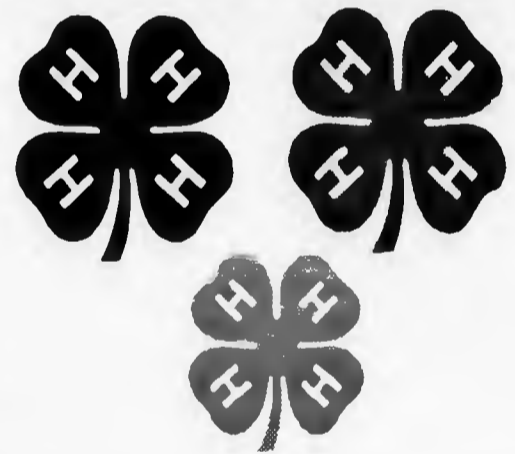

Holly Anne Haskins of Aberdeen was named a winner in the North Carolina Cotton Wives' 1996 Back-to-School Sewing Contest, held recently in Raleigh at Peace College.

In the category for 12 and 13 years old, Haskins won first place for her outfit, a three-tiered skirt, lined vest and blouse with French cuffs and covered buttons. All the pieces were made of three different music-theme material designs. Haskins placed black trim around the cuffs and collar.

Haskins, daughter of Albert and Yvonne Haskins, is an active 4-H'er. She is a member of the Willing Workers 4-H Club.

The N.C. Cotton Wives, whose members are wives of North Carolina Cotton Growers Association members, provide cash awards to the top five winners in each category - 9 to 11 year olds and 12 and 13 year olds - of the Back-to-School Sewing Contest.

The Cotton Wives have held the event annually for the past 23 years. Outfits made for the contest must be made from material of a least 60 percent cotton.
