Check out 'charters of freedom'

Local elementary students are studying the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights.

Parents, teachers and guardians are reminded copies of the original documents are on display with signatures and the language of the times for study. The documents are also available for reading on the Internet but not in the form in which they were written in the late 1700s. ### Obituaries policy

Generally, obituaries are faxed to The News-Journal by funeral homes. If you wish an obituary to appear in this newspaper, you are asked to request that the mortuary serving the family send it to us.

The News-Journal is happy to publish good quality photos of the deceased if they are brought or e-mailed to us. Original photos will be returned.

Also, it is our policy to publish the names of all survivors submitted to us and most other information about the deceased that the family wants included in an article.

There is no charge for this service.

Happy Birthday
Eva Mae McBride

We love and miss you.
