Sheriff Dave Barrington appears before the Hoke commissioners and asks for a stock law because nothing prevents cattle from straying into county roads or other people's property. Commissioners agree to ask Rep. Neill McFadyen to present a bill in the state legislature.

State Rep. Neill McFadyen says he'll go to bat, if necessary, to prevent any additional taxes on cigarettes. As the state looks for new sources of revenue, McFadyen says a proposed tax increase on cigarettes will hurt area tobacco growers. Other increases proposed are additional taxes on alcohol, a crown tax on soft drinks, and increasing the sales tax, now at 3 percent. Ronald Wayne Phillips celebrates his 11th birthday with a party attended by Mitchell Cox, Boyd Jackson, Robert Riddle, Ronnie Ellis, Mitchell and Carl Walters, David Elledge and Calvin Phillips. His mother, Mrs. Archie L. Phillips, makes his birthday cake shaped like a guitar.

An ad offers A&P 100 percent Columbian coffee for 79 cents per pound.

Hoke High Bucks wrestlers win their 8th straight match Monday night, edging Cary High 23-22. Four undefeated wrestlers are Richard Davis, Ronnie Branch, George McFadyen and Benny Gasque.

Hoke Schools Superintendent Bob Nelson announces he will retire at the end of June. The 1990 Regional Superintendent of the Year says he made the decision after attending a Turkey Festival Board meeting Monday night. His decision comes shortly before the board of education is to consider his new contract. Board member Dwight Oxendine says he's not surprised and that two new board members believe Nelson has to go.

Bobby Conoly is named the Raeford Kiwanis Citizenship Man of the Year. Harold Gillis presents the award and says Conoly was "destined to serve."
