NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Mr Will Royall, aged 17, son of Mr W B Royall, formerly of Goldsboro, was drowned in Trent river near Newbern, Monday.

Durham Sun: Richard Ross, who is 73 years old, was in town today, and he says winter is over; that this spring will be like the spring of '42 and '43. We suppose this is right, but it is too far back for us to remember.

The New Berne Courier notes the running of a special train on the W N & N R R, from New Berne to Wilmington, 88 miles, in two hours and fifteen minutes, including five stops.

"I am about seventy years of age and have lived in Guilford county all my life, but this is the first time I ever came to town in my shirt sleeves in March," said a gentleman today who resides six miles in the country. It is truly an advanced season we are having.—Greensboro Record.

The farmers of Wayne county have struck the key note to success and independence. They are raising their own supplies. Let all the other counties in the State imitate their examples, and the farmers of North Carolina will soon be the most prosperous and independent class of people in the State.—Goldsboro Argus.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Thos. Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Ergers, 139 Flor da St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else; they bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in cough and colds. Free trial bottle at John Y. MacRae's drugstore. Regular size 50c and $1.

READ HER OWN OBITUARY.

Greensboro Record.

It does not often fall to the lot of any one to read his own obituary, even once.

Mrs. Keogh can have the opportunity of reading hers twice, for the papers had her dead on Thursday last. On Friday it was refuted, and then they rallied and came again on Sunday with a telegram from the New York World, stating that she was dead this time sure, but the Record came to the rescue with the truth again yesterday and showed that she was not dead—again.

Several papers had obituary notices and words of condolence for the bereaved husband, &c.

IT WAS NOT THE BIBLE.

Mrs Stonewall Jackson yesterday received the Bible which Clay Whiteley, the fakir, claimed to have taken from the burning library in Lexington, when he, with others, was detached to burn the Confederate General's house (which was never done.) The book did not favor any one Mrs Jackson ever remembered seeing in her home, and no name in it, and no writing by which she could identify it. She was satisfied that the book was never owned by General Jackson, and so she returned it by express to Whiteley at Springfield, Ind.
