PERSONAL MENTION

Of People Who Came and Went Today.

Mr. Richard Merrimon has gone to Chicago.

State treasurer Tate has returned to the city from Wilmington.

Miss Fanny Heck arrived this morning from Philadelphia.

Mr. Will B. Merrimon, who is now with a Greensboro firm, is here.

A portrait of Col. Julian S. Carr has been presented to the state library.

A child of Mr. Sam. Smith is very sick at his home on west Jones street.

Mr. Nat L. Brown has gone to Jamestown, N. C., having news of the serious sickness of Capt. Eady, his father in law. Mrs. Brown accompanied him.

Ex Governor Holt, his wife and Dr. and Mrs. Laird were in Charlotte yesterday, on their way home after 11 weeks' absence in Florida. His health is now robust.

Postmaster Manly has taken charge of the Newbern office, succeeding W. E. Clarke. Gen. Cullen A. Battle, editor of the Journal, is one of his assistants.

Mr. George W. Watts of Durham, gives $1,000 for the building of a hospital at the Presbyterian orphanage at Barium Springs, Iredell county. Work will begin at once.

Mr. Benjamin R. Smith, who was in the Boston bridge wreck, near Statesville, in 1890 has recovered $3,000 from the Richmond & Danville railway company.

Dr. T. D. Hogg, Miss Sallie Hogg, Mrs. James McKee and Miss Sallie Dorch have gone to Salem to witness the impressive and beautiful Easter services of the Methodists in their church and cemetery in that charming and quaint old town.

Arrivals at the Park today: J. T. J. Battle, Wadesboro; H. H. Kayton, New York; Milton Smith, Cold Spring N. Y.; Alfred A. Watson, Brooklyn, N. Y.; B. Nusham, chemist, Seaboard Air Line; D. K. Wright, Fayetteville; H. A. Norton, Boston.

Arrivals at the Yarboro today: A. Greenbaum, W. Hardesty, Baltimore; Charles M. Cook, Louisville; R. Cooper, J. H. Clute, N. Y.; Wm. Eshardt, Cincinnati; George T. Thompson, Jr., Culpepper, Va.

The following compose the University of North Carolina glee club: K. P. Harrington, musical director; Charles Roberson, leader; John L. Patterson, business manager; first tenors, F. N. Cooke, W. J. McSorley, J. H. Daingerfield and A. W. Mangum. Second tenors, D. Batman, F. B. McKinnon, J. W. McAllister and W. R. Webb. First basses, Charles Roberson, D. Lindsay, P. W. McMullen and J. L. Patterson. Second basses, E. R. McKenzie, B. E. Stanley, F. F. Bahnsen and F. B. Benbow.

Governor Carr today appointed as additional members of the N. C. commission to visit the battle ground of Antietam or Sharpsburg John W. McGregor, Joseph Crowder of Wadesboro; Frank Bennett and Edmund G. Gaddy. The commission of Confederate officers and soldiers appointed by Governor Carr to act with the national commission in locating the positions occupied by the North Carolina troops at this great battle will leave for Washington May 23, and go thence to the battlefield May 25.

Gen. Harry Heth, who often commanded North Carolina troops, is on the national commission. Judge Walter Clark is chairman of the North Carolina commission. He was at Sharpsburg, adjutant of a regiment, though a boy of 15 in a round jacket. Ex Judge Bennett, also on the commission, commanded the fourteenth regiment. Superintendent of instruction John O. Scarborough served as an officer in the same regiment. Col. E. D. Hall, of Wilmington, of the Forty sixth, on that day commanded Cooke's brigade, as Gen. Cooke was wounded. Treasurer S. McD. Tate was lieutenant colonel of the Sixth regiment. Col. W. L. DeRossett, of Wilmington, of the Third North Carolina, was severely wounded on that day. Gen. R. F. Hoke, who commanded a brigade; Col. F. M. Arker who commanded the Thirtieth North Carolina; Col. W. H. Cheek, of the First Cavalry; Capt. N. W. Ray; Capt. W. H. Dawson, judge Fred Phillips, then captain; W. F. Beasley, then lieutenant; privates James M. Johnson and J. M. Monie with those named above constitute the commission which has been well selected.

It is not yet known where the encampment of the State guard will be held this year. The regiment of which the Raleigh company is a part does not go in camp this year.

Mr. Baker's Funeral.

The funeral of Mr. John H. Baker was held at the First Baptist church at 10 o'clock this morning and the large attendance and the many marks of respect showed clearly the high regard and esteem in which he was held in Raleigh. Both lodges of the Knights of Pythias attended with full ranks. Rev. Dr. Carter of the First Baptist church and Rev. Dr. Simms of the Baptist tabernacle conducted the services. Dr. Carter preaching a brief but forcible sermon from the text "It is only a step between us and death." The burial was at Oakwood cemetery. The pallbearers were: On the part of the Knights of Pythias, Messrs A. A. Thompson, Wayne Ailcott, W. W. Willson, Charles B. Park, Charles H. Beine, and G. M. Allen; on the part of the family Wm. O. Stronach and J. H. Alford. Mr. Baker was, as was stated, chancellor commander of Centre lodge, and the lodge room and his chair of office are draped in mourning. On his casket were many beautiful flowers.

"The King's Daughters"

Would be pleased to have the young men of Raleigh send their clothes which need mending to the "Mission Rooms." Many persons are there ready to patch, sew on buttons and darn socks. The ladies ask for this sort of work. The people beg them for work, and unless the citizens give aid they cannot help the worthy poor. "The King's Daughters" desire also second-hand clothing. Many children are in need of clothes to attend school every day and Sunday's. Their mothers ask for clothing and are anxious for them to go to church, but they cannot obtain sufficient food and raiment to enable them to go out on the Sabbath. The mission rooms have found many kind helpers here, but still the needs of the people do not lessen. A welcome is extended to all King's Daughters visiting Raleigh. All other persons who are in sympathy with the work are also invited to the mission rooms.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Showers today, and in the eastern portion tonight. Fair Saturday and Sunday. Much colder. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Light rain tonight or early Saturday morning, followed by fair Saturday and Sunday. Much cooler. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 89; minimum temperature, 63; rainfall, 0.03.

Synopsis: The conditions were more decidedly in favor of cooler weather this morning. An area of low pressure is passing off the north Atlantic coast, while a large area of high pressure accompanied by much cooler weather is advancing from the west. It is probable that the temperature will fall 2° during the next 24 hours, and that light rain will precede this decided fall in temperature.

Quite a number of pupils of St. Mary's school have gone home to remain until Tuesday, on account of the Easter holidays.

Out west there is a tremendous fall of snow, blocking railroad cuts and delaying railroad traffic everywhere. Snow fell today in Texas.

At 8 o'clock this morning the temperature at the State weather station here was 73 degrees; the highest figure reached this month at that hour of the day.

Messrs. Bunch and Johnson are canvassing the city in the interest of a new telephone exchange, at the annual rate of $30 for business houses and $20 for residences. They have taken 85 orders and are ordered by the chamber of commerce committee.

The Willing circle of King's Daughters will have an Easter egg hunt for the little folks Monday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, at the "Park Place" on north Blount street. The admission will be ten cents. A prize will be given to the child finding the most eggs, and also to the one who finds the least. Candy will also be sold.

A musicale will be given at Mrs. F. O. Moring's this evening by Misses Simpson, Nowell, Ellis, Lula Briggs, Moring, Norris, Reiddy, Jones and Carter, Mrs. Charles Newcomb, Mr. T. H. Briggs and Mr. Charles Newcomb. Miss Feagles adds "The Minuet," "Home, Sweet Home" and other selections by her physical culture class of little girls.

In the market fish are somewhat lower in prices, large roe shad bringing now $1.20 a bushel, small ones $1; buck shad, large 80 cents small 70 cents a pair; herrings 15 cents a bunch; other small fish 20 to 25 cents. Choice steaks 15 to 15 cents a pound; roast cuts 14; N. O. hams 10, shoulders 9; mutton 10 to 12; veal 8 to 12; tripe 10; pork 8 wholesale and 12 retail; pork sausage 15 cents, mixed 10.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Boiled Down.

Good Friday.

Rain is very welcome in this section.

The letter-carriers have received new helmets.

That beautiful flower the wisteria, is coming into bloom.

The floor timbers for the Pullen building are being delivered.

The Seaboard Air Line is building a coal chute at Sanford.

Merchants report business here to be quite good.

The house painters in Raleigh report business in their line as good.

In three or four days the painting at the state museum will be finished.

There are no market reports today, nor will any be received until Tuesday.

Some fine perch and chub are being caught in ponds and streams near here.

Allen & Cram are putting in the steam heating plant in the agricultural building.

Green clover is coming into market. It was never before out in March in this section.

The Raleigh male academy pupils has holiday today, and resume their work Tuesday.

March had, not up today, been a windy month, but is now making up for lost time.

The dust rose from the county roads today in clouds and it was difficult to see any distance.

Cleveland's minstrels and European vaudevilles are coming and will be here next month.

Copies of the annual report of labor commissioner B. R. Lacy will be sent to any address on application.

Reports reached collector Simmons today of the seizure of two illicit distilleries in Moore and Orange counties.

There are more northern visitors in this city now than in a long time. Raleigh bids fair to become a winter resort.

Today being Good Friday there were services at Christ church the church of the Good Shepherd and the church of the Sacred Heart.

The reserved seat sale for Wilfred Clarke in "Fit for Tat" will commence Monday morning. The box sheet is at W. H. King & Co's drug store.

The county authorities arrested two negroes, Bob Murphy and Stewart Iredell for playing "craps." Both are boys. Other players of this gambling game are to be run in.

As a mark of respect to an old and justly valued employee, the store of W. C. & A. B. Stronach was closed from half past nine to twelve o'clock today during the funeral of Mr. Baker.

It is said by well informed persons that there is more travel on the R. & D. railway between this city and Greensboro than on any other line to the south.

Hundreds of persons went to Greensboro today to see the baseball game between the teams of Yale University and the University of North Carolina, which was played this afternoon.

The University Glee Club will give a concert here Easter Monday evening and from present indications will be greeted by a large house. Seats can be secured at W. H. King & Co's drug store.

The cotton receipts here for the week ending yesterday were 24,600 against 19,973 to the same date last season. The week's receipts were 393 bales, against 527 bales during the corresponding week last season.

Quite a number of the students of the agricultural and mechanical college went to Durham today to be present at the meeting of the State college association. The latter is attracting many persons to Durham.

Good progress is being made in the arrangement of exhibits at the state museum. The agricultural exhibit, a beautiful one, is completed. The birds, the fish and the game animals are also in the cases. The woods, with the superb photographs, are all in the cases. At the bottom is shown a section of a tree, half polished, while above each section are two photographs, one showing the tree as it stands in the forest and the other the lower portion of the same tree. At the World's Fair this particular exhibit attracted much attention.
