D T Swindell—Specials.

Virginia State Insurance Company—Statement.

Last year the two finest games of baseball played here were between the teams of the University of Vermont and the University of N. C. Tomorrow they again play, this time at Durham

Wayland Rollins, ex policeman, is again on trial for his life at Durham. The supreme court the last term granted him a new trial. He killed a countryman named Alexander Jones.

"Mrs. Carridice," the female physician who raised a rampus at Charlotte and is in jail at Petersburg, was here a fortnight ago, but was quiet while in Raleigh.

At Shaw University last evening at the law class commencement brief addresses were made by chief justice Shepherd and Solicitor Pau, in response to calls.

An Attractive Performance.

Tomorrow evening the academy of music will contain one of the most fashionable audiences which has yet assembled there, at the performance of the University of Pennsylvania glee and banjo clubs. The list of patronesses, which will be published tomorrow, is a lengthy one and contains the names of many leading society ladies. Of the clubs the Chester (Pa) Times says: "The banjo or mandolin, when artistically played, reveals surprising richness, and the music is unique enough to send a thrill through the listener. Many of the college boys have decided talent, but it is in the ensemble that the softness and richness of the banjo and mandolin is apparent. The program includes a variety of delicious movements, and each solo, duet, chorus or selection was loudly encored."

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, warmer. For Raleigh and vicinity: On Saturday—fair, warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a m today: Maximum temperature, 54; minimum, 30; rainfall, 0.18.

Synopsis: The storm which was central over the middle Atlantic states yesterday morning is now disappearing to the northeast. The high pressure area, with its clear, cold weather has moved in from the west and is now central over the middle southern states. Lowest temperature this morning at 5 o'clock was 26° at Cleveland, Ohio. North of Florida the temperature ranges from 26° to 46°. There has been a decided rise in temperature in the west, owing to the advance of a new storm center, which is now central over the Dakotas, apparently. The temperature will rise everywhere east of the Rock les today.

Wake Superior Court.

In this court today the first case taken up was against Frank Robinson, Henry Dowden, Sidney Crabtree and Eugene Smith for an affray. Crabtree and Smith are white. They fought near the Pilot mills Sunday a week ago. Crabtree and Robinson were found guilty. The next case was against Dah Jones, colored, for throwing a stone into the cab of an engine near the Johnston street station. He was fined $20 and costs in two cases, having been tried yesterday for an affray. Charles H Perry, colored, was tried for assault with a deadly weapon on Wm Lloyd in this city, and fined $10 and costs. Henry Dowden, colored, charged with carrying a pistol, was next tried and convicted. Sam Harris was acquitted of embezzling $1 in money from Miley Lee.

Lizzie McCollers, colored, pleaded guilty of larceny, and her prayer for judgment was continued for 13 months, she to stay in custody until costs are paid. Len Fowler, white, convicted of embezzlement some time ago, was sent to the road gang to work out costs. This afternoon the case against Solomon Nicholson, colored, for stealing goods from Berwanger Bros. was heard. Many goods belonging to the firm were found in his possession and in were evidence. The Messrs Berwanger and their clerks and the chief of police were witnesses. The court room was crowded during the trial of this case.

Mr Frank Stronach's Kew Building.

THE VISITOR had the pleasure of announcing sometime ago that Mr Frank Stronach would build a horse mart and vehicle repository on the site of his present warehouses on South Wilmington street. Mr Bauer has completed the plans, which are certainly admirable. The building will be of brick and galvanized iron, with a front of 53½ feet on South Wilmington street, and a depth of 150 feet. Mr Stronach has purchased property 80x53½ feet, in rear of Barber's store, which will also give him an entrance way through Johnson's stables on East Martin street. The front part of the building, 53½x150, will be two stories high, with three large entrances, two to the repository for vehicles, the other to the mart for horses and mules in the rear annex. The first floor will contain specimen vehicles, and an office in the centre. On the upper floor the general stock of vehicles will be kept. There will be an elevator at one of the front doors. In the annex there will be 26 stalls for horses, with galvanized iron troughs, &c, and also a mule pen. There will be a sort of gallery, from which the animals will be viewed and also a pit in which sales will be made. Mr Stronach says work will begin May 1. The front of the building will be quite ornamented.

Regular meeting of Raleigh Council, No 1, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is earnestly requested to be present as there is business of importance to be transacted.
M R HAYNES, R S.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Bolled Down.

There will be no frost tonight.

The frost this morning was light.

A little snow fell at Charlotte yesterday.

There was considerable ice this morning

The crop of clover is badly hurt by the freeze.

There were no cases today in the mayor's court.

Orange Page will take no appeal to the supreme court

The train from Greensboro was two hours late today.

The cotton receipts have been unusually light this week.

The radiators are being placed in the agricultural building.

Mounted men are continuing the search for Mr. U E Crabtree of Durham.

It is stated that wagons made at Cary are being shipped to Pennsylvania.

Orange Page, the murderer, got only $13 in money from his victim, poor old Rosa Haywood.

Tomorrow the work of curbing the sidewalk on the east side of Nash square will begin.

The condition of House, who cut his throat night before last, is considered to be more favorable.

A convict from Jones county arrived at the penitentiary today and two convicts from Burke county.

The local cotton market advanced one eighth today. The light receipts are said to be the cause of the rise.

Thirty one boys who are said to drink and gamble have been summoned before the grand jury of Durham county.

It is said that the cruiser Raleigh, now at the navy yard at Portsmouth, will not be ready for service before May 1.

Many convicts are at work at the grounds of the executive mansion, grading the rear portion and laying granite curbing.

There are good reasons for belief that Raleigh will have a roller flouring mill. Jones & Powell have taken the matter in hand actively.

The Washington papers speak in complimentary terms of the refreshments served by Dughi at L'Arroso club's reception there Tuesday evening.

The murderer Page just after his conviction yesterday cast some very black looks at Mary Smith, and spoke some words to her. She turned away from him.

The March Cosmopolitan is up to the high standard of this popular magazine. It is not only by far the cheapest of all the magazines, but is one of the best

Rev Mr Tuttle will next Tuesday evening at Edenton street M E church deliver an address before the Ep worth league, at which the general public will be welcome.

The cotton receipts at this market since September 1 are 24,940 bales against 21,399 to this date last season. This week's receipts were only 245 against 416 the corresponding week last season.

At Shaw university this evening the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the school of missionary training will be held. There are five graduates, all females. President Meserve will present the diplomas

It may be ten days before the new postmaster gets into office. Under a new rule when a bond is sent to Washington it is placed in the hands of a postoffice inspector who goes to the place and sees that the bond is all right. Then the commission is issued

All the new index books save four at the register of deeds office are completed. It will require a couple of months, it is thought, to complete these and the verification of all the books. Thus far 120 books are finished. Mr Booth is now at work.

In the market the vegetables are in not much variety. Cabbage sell at 2½ to 10 cents a head; kale and salad 10 cents a peck; but the salad is inferior, the frost having injured it; lettuce at the high price of 10 cents a head; radishes and onions 5 cents a bunch. Eggs now retail at 12½ cents. Roe shad have declined to $1 a pair; buok shad to 70 cents. Fresh herrings are 15 cents a bunch.
