OUTDID HERSELF.

Mrs Lyon has just returned from the north, where she outdid herself in buying our stock this spring. New spring goods coming in every day. Our Dress Goods Department is the prettiest and cheapest that it has ever been our pleasure to offer. Gingham 50 yard which we and all others have sold at 9 and 12c. MRS SOUTH-ERLAND, an experienced Milliner from Baltimore, is in charge of our Millinery Department. In SHOES we have no competition. Fish Hooks 2c doz; Lines 1c and 2c. Space forbids further mention. Come to see us and we will prove this assertion.

PERSONAL MENTION

Of People Who Came and Went Today.

Mrs Lovie Young is very sick with pleurisy.

Mr N B Broughton is at Marion, S C, to remain some days.

Mr A P Bryan returned today from a month's visit to Connecticut.

Prof. Massey will deliver the annual address at Louisburg female college this year.

W P Toomer, of Wilmington, was today appointed a notary public by Gov. Carr.

Sheriff Cozart of Granville was here this morning and settled his state taxes.

Mr Morrison Divine, of Wilmington, of the Atlantic Coast Line railway, was here today. It was his first visit to Raleigh.

Mr. Thomas W Thompson, a prominent resident of Bertie county, died Thursday. His wife died just one week previously.

Congressman Branch has recommended John D Davis to be collector of customs at Beaufort, and the name has been sent to the secretary for final action.

It is the desire of some of the republicans to push Jeter O Pritchard for the United States Senate. They certainly regard him as their leader in the west, if not in the whole state.

Mr Thomas W Mason will deliver the oration at the laying of the corner stone of the Confederate monument May 30. He is an admirable speaker; one of the very best in the state.

Rev Dr Charles E Taylor, the accomplished president of Wake Forest College, will write a series of articles for the Biblical Recorder on "How Far Ought a State Undertake to Educate."

Arrivals at the Park today: J W Moore, Florida; J N Williamson, Jr, Graham; G W Brose, New York; H F Reese, Baltimore; T T Oliver, Petersburg; H B Christian, New York; R L Hodges, Atlanta; A N Pearce, Lynchburg.

Mr Ben Angel, of Walnut Cove, fell asleep last Tuesday and was aroused by the physicians late Wednesday night. He was speechless and wrote on a sheet of paper that his voice had left him. He was able, however, to open his eyes. Mr. Angel was sent to his former home at Rocky Mount, Va., yesterday. He is engaged to be married next Tuesday.

Arrivals at the Yarboro today: O T Smith, N C; L J Reinburgh Jr, Philadelphia; W W Knapp, New York; H W Bowers, N C; M W James, New York; J W Westmoreland, Greenville, N C; W T O'Brien & son, Durham; S R Hughes, N C; Wm Sherrill, Atlanta; O O Anderson Jr., Baltimore; O S Virnelson, Portsmouth.

"Lettie Tyler" is the stage name of Miss Bessie Kirkland a daughter of Gen. Kirkland, formerly of Hillsboro now of New York. She is a member of Mr Frohman's well known theatrical company and is to marry Mr Howard Gould. She is a niece of Mrs C C Crow, of Raleigh and a granddaughter of Gen. Hardee, a well known Confederate officer and author of a once widely known book on military tactics.

Last Evening's Musicals.

The musicals given at the academy of music last evening by St Luke's circle of King's Daughters was an extremely pleasant affair and well attended. The music was sparkling. The solo singers were little Helen Allen and Hattie Weil, Misses Maude Cowper, Minnie Tucker, Downey and Elzey, and Mrs Charles McKimmon. There were piano performances by Sallie and Bessie Parham, Lillian Beavers, Annie Jones, Hattie Weil, Gertrude Rosenthal, Helen Allen, Ralph Fisher and sister, and Sallie Parham. There were recitations by little Belle Hay, Miss Eliza Moore and little Lena Whitfield. There was delightful music on mandolins and guitars by Misses Minnie Tucker, Mary Johnston, Shipp and Lily Hoke and Messrs Sherwood Haywood, W H King and W W Vass. A feature of the performance was the drill of the fairies, under the direction of Mr Wilkinson, and scarf drill under the direction of Miss Feagles.

Monday evening Mr Leo Wheat, the famous piano virtuoso, will appear at Metropolitan hall, in company with the Tuxedo musical club. He will use one of the world famous Steinway pianos specially secured for this occasion from Miller & Uzzie, the Raleigh agents.

No Performance this Evening.

The glee and banjo clubs of the University of Pennsylvania were to have appeared at the academy of music this evening. This morning the following telegram was received by manager German dated Danville, Va: "We must cancel our date tonight. We are recalled by the president of the University. Will write."

Y M C A.

Tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock a gospel service will be held in the Y M C A rooms. Mr James I Johnson will be the speaker. There will be song service 25 minutes, the quartette being composed of Messrs Primrose, Young, Cooper and Newcomb, a solo by Mr J O Williams and music by three violins, organ, cornet. Young men are especially invited to attend. All men are invited and a hearty welcome will be given. Each regular attendant is asked to bring a friend.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair weather, warmer Sunday morning. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Sunday and Monday fair weather, much warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a m today: Maximum temperature, 56; minimum, 37; rainfall, 0.

Synopsis: The storm yesterday central over Dakota has moved eastward and is now central over north of Lake Superior. Very little rain has fallen in connection with it. It is causing warm southerly winds in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys, where the weather is generally cloudy this morning. The high area and clearing condition is central over the south Atlantic states, where the weather is clear. Frosts occurred this morning at Augusta, Charleston, Savannah and northward.

Postmaster Busbee in Charge.

Mr Charles M Busbee last evening received a telegram from the postmaster general informing him that his commission had been mailed and instructing to take charge of the office April 1st. Col Shaffer received a telegram of the same tenor. This evening after the close of business, the office will be turned over by Col Shaffer to Mr Busbee. It will be perhaps about 10 o'clock before the transfer is made. The reason of making the change so early is because a month and a quarter of a year both end today, and this makes the time particularly convenient. Col Shaffer took charge of the office July 16th, 1889. His administration of its affairs has always been business-like and with a desire to serve the public and he certainly has a most worthy successor in the person of Mr Busbee.

Wake Superior Court

Solomon Nicholson colored, charged with stealing from Berwanger Bros, escaped conviction yesterday. Today he was tried on another charge of the same offence, was convicted and sentenced to nine months on the roads. James Price, colored, for assault with deadly weapon was sent to the roads for thirty days. William Jones, the negro ex hackman, convicted of assault with deadly weapon, was sentenced to jail for ten days, to pay all costs in the original action, costs of set fa and requisition, in all nearly $100; if costs are not paid in ten days he is to be worked on the public roads until all are paid. Jones' assault was on his wife and he whipped her with the heavy end of a whip. Frank Robinson, colored, was convicted of perjury, of which he plead guilty and gets 4 months on the roads. Ned Robinson his brother, gets 30 days for the same offence and Henry Dowden 4 months.

The grand jury made a brief report, stating that the jail and offices are in first rate condition; the county home and the workhouse also in first class order, even better than they expected, and the inmates well satisfied. They recommend the more rigid enforcement of the public road law outside of Raleigh township. They condemn the court house bell as unfit for use.

The business of the court was virtually ended today, though it is a two weeks term. Judge Hoke is a great dispatcher of business. There will be no session next week.

The following county convicts were this afternoon taken from the jail to the workhouse:

Lonnie Rogers, Dock Lassiter, John Smith, Sam Yancy, Will Simms, Pres Hannah, Alex Hinton, Joe Privett, Joe Cannon, Albert Yelorday, Peter Ferguson, Mary Lane Richard Dunston, Bob Murphy, Solomon Nicholson, James Pearce, Frank Robinson, Ned Robinson, Henry Dowden, Len Stuart, Daniel Jones. Mary Smith was taken to the penitentiary, to remain there all her life. There are only 3 prisoners in jail, one being Orange Page, the condemned murderer.

The Easter music will be repeated at St Mary's school today.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Rolled Down.

It is now postmaster Busbee. A convict from Perquimans arrived at the penitentiary today.

The grand jury adjourned today for this term of the superior court.

Luke Rogers colored, was jailed last night for an assault on his wife.

Many of the students of Shaw University, colored, left for home today.

The cold snap ruined 35 acres of fine clover at Mr George Shellem's farm.

The U N C glee club went home this afternoon, having made a successful tour.

The street force is grading streets north of the deaf mute and blind asylum.

Cleveland's minstrels will draw one of the largest audiences yet seen at the academy of music.

Mr Henry Saintaug is building a considerable addition to his residence on Johnson street.

The uniforms for the cadets at the agricultural and mechanical college arrived today. There are 120 in the battalion.

The clerks and letter carriers will this evening present a cane to the retiring postmaster. The presentation speech will be made by Mr T R Purnell.

There is to be a game of baseball here soon, between teams representing the married men and the single men. The proceeds will be devoted to charitable purposes.

It is requested and earnestly desired that every member of Central M E Sunday school be present to morrow morning at 9 a m. A special invitation is given all the absentees.

It is believed that by next fall Raleigh will have roller spinning mills in operation and that they will be located on the property of the Mills wagon company, in the southern part of the city. This is an excellent location.

Rev J O Atkinson, of Elon college, will preach at the Christian church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. He is a native of Wake county and his friends in Raleigh and the public are cordially invited by the pastor to hear him.

Isaiah Shaw, colored, was lodged in jail today, from Houses Creek township, for larceny and carrying concealed weapons. The latter were a bull dog revolver, a big knife and some mean corn liquor. He will be in jail until September.

An auroral display was visible last evening and for a time the display was fine. At 8:15 o'clock it became beautifully rose colored, and extended nearly to the zenith. There were bands of intensely white light at intervals. Auroras are rather infrequent in this latitude.

Two brothers named Woodward, who live near here, had a steet fight today and paid $5 and costs; a white man who was drunk and disorderly paid the same fine, while a Nevada cowboy, who rode on the street as if he was in the wild west, also paid $5.

On account of the heavy expense attached to the Raleigh produce and cotton exchange, which has never reached a sustaining basis, Mr H A Wilkinso, the manager, has decided to close on and after today, and hence there will be no more of the special market reports from Atwood Violett & Co.

It is hoped that in the interest of the public and of the clerical force at the postoffice postmaster Busbee will replace the gas lights with electric lights. The latter are in use in all offices of this class. The gas lights are poor and are smoking the beautifully painted ceilings. Much of this has been recently done, and the postoffice people very justly complain of the lights and their excessive smokiness.

The egg business here at the all-ance produce exchange, in the Prairie building on South Wilmington street, is a large one. Eggs come in from all over the State, from the farmers. They are all tested by being placed in front of a special lamp and divided into six classes. These are, large white, large yellow, small, cracked, smashed and decayed. Great care is taken in grading. The eggs are then shipped in crates five and six. These of class five are sold by measure. The exchange furnishes eggs to both the leading hotels here and the proprietors say the eggs are the freshest and best they have ever had.
