Notes.

The "Southern" of Knoxville is the oldest and by far the largest general association in the south, and is also the largest association in America.

It has 500 branches in 18 states. It is, in effect, a league of 500 local associations. All these associations must fulfill before the association can fail. Therefore, failure is impossible.

The "Southern" has turned over from the expense fund to the loan fund $172,000 in five years. No other association has even approximated such a record.

The actual running expense per share is less than in any other association, and on cash handled much less than the majority of the large financial institutions of the country.

The feature of an unappropriated reserve, providing against losses and insuring the perfect equality of all stockholders, will be appreciated, for the interests of the many cannot be sacrificed for the benefit of a few. The by-laws forbid the sale, or the use as collateral security, of any of the securities belonging to the association, and require all securities to be kept on deposit in the name of the association with the State Treasurer or approved trust companies.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Boiled Down.

The board of aldermen meets Friday evening.

Raleigh's guitar and mandolin club is to keep up its organization.

There is a great deal of work in progress in the house painting line.

Good progress is being made in the improvements at the station house.

On the 21st instant the Visitor will celebrate its fifteenth birthday.

Some improvements are being made at the offices of the railway commission.

The news from South Carolina today was that there was no disturbance.

The county delinquent tax list will be published in the North Carolinian Thursday.

Twenty seven convicts were today sent from the penitentiary to the Koonoke farms.

Capt W B Kendrick lectures at Metropolitan hall this evening at 8:30 on "Wife Bunting."

The electric lights are now on at the Park hotel, and it is hoped will be turned on at the academy of music.

A night school is to be organized at the Pilot cotton mills for the instruction of the children employed there.

Wayland Rollins, the ex-policeman on trial for life at Durham, for murder at Durham, was today acquitted.

The will of the late P O Ferrell of White Oak township was probated today. Mrs Addie Wicker is executrix.

The fire committee of the board of aldermen will meet at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the mayor's office.

Last year to this date only 54,000 bales of cotton were compressed here. To date this season the number is 69,000.

The young colored doctor Robertson whose arrest at the depot yesterday was reported, last evening married the woman who had him arrested.

As yet the long missing Mr Charles E Crabtree of Durham has not been found. It is conjectured that he may be near Chatham, Va., where he has a sister.

Some years ago the police used to arrest lewd women found on the streets at night. Now these women are unmolested and are increasing in number and boldness. Will the authorities teach them a lesson?

Yesterday Mr Scarborough, state superintendent of public instruction, received $500 from Dr Curry for the State normal and industrial school, from the Peabody fund, making $3,500 received this year for that school.

It is learned from today's Charlotte Observer that congressman Woodard's federal court bill, which he has introduced, provides for a district court at Raleigh, the session of which shall begin the fourth Monday in May and the first Monday in December, and transfers Durham, Chatham, Moore, Person and Richmond counties from the western to the eastern district.

The subject of the address to be delivered this evening in the Sunday school rooms of Edenton street Methodist church by Rev D H Tuttle is "The Finest of Fine Arts, the Art of Doing Good." It is a capital subject, and all who go may expect to hear an excellent address. The public is cordially invited. The time is 8 o'clock. Seats are free. Members of the league will wear their colors.

W S Cleveland, of the minstrels, has a particular friend in Boston, who is an undertaker, to whom he once sent a box, from which to see the show. The funeral furnisher received it with thanks, and said: "My dear Will, in return for your courtesy I shall be pleased to reciprocate and furnish you a box at any time." Which goes to show that an undertaker is not to be outdone in civility by a minstrel manager.

Leo Wheat's concert company gave a delightful entertainment at Metropolitan hall last evening. Mr Wheat's piano performance, showed him to be truly a master of the instrument. The Tuxedo mandolin and guitar club won honors. Nothing equal to their playing on those instruments had ever been heard here before. There were many encores both of Mr Wheat and the club, and they were most kind in responding. An especial compliment was paid in the recall after the finale, a medley of Southern airs. It had been twenty five years since Mr Wheat appeared here.

Polk Miller, the Fun Maker.

At Metropolitan hall at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening Mr Polk Miller, the widely known Virginia humorist, will give a dialect recital from Southern plantation life and a lecture on "The O D Issue Darkey." Mr Miller is a master of his art; the best in his specialty in all the south. Rev Dr Moses D Hoge of Richmond says of him: "I would scarcely have anticipated that there are enough left of a former generation to remember the plantation negro as he was, and to appreciate a true representation of him. Your manner is so natural and different from the exaggerated, conventional way of exhibiting him that your success is all the more gratifying to you because it is gained by a true and faithful illustration of your subject." The performances are for the benefit of the Raleigh Y M C A. Get tickets at Johnson's drug store.
