J. G. Ball & Co have introduced a new prize system which will prove very "catching." To each cash purchaser of 50 cents worth of goods at their grocery store will be given a ticket. These tickets entitle the holders to a chance at a gold watch. There are two watches, one a lady's, the other a gentleman's, so that each sex has an opportunity to get at a merely nominal cost a fine timepiece. As each series of 100 tickets is exhausted a drawing will take place, each ticket being numbered.

$10! The more you pay the more cautious you should be, but you can give away care at our "first" grade of suits. It is more to our credit to give satisfaction at $10 than at $30. We have plenty styles at $10 picked fabrics—carefully selected patterns—cut after the "modes." Honest garments, all sizes.

$12.50! This is a grade that has driven the cheap tailors out of the field. Their $35 suits were no better, and they fell far short of our variety. We show plenty styles, different cuts, cloths and color, patterns you won't meet with every where else. Any size for any shape.

$15! If you buy one of our $15 suits you can count you have saved from $5 to $10. Its our great grade. If we show any partiality its in these suits. We're double as many as any two stores. You'll be infatuated with the styles and fit of them this spring. cheviots, cassimeres, homespuns, worsteds in those long sacks and cutaways.

$18 $20 $22 $25 $30! You'll dress in the best "if" you pick from our $18 to $30 grades of suits. You've made us have more this season than ever. We take the best English worsted, French cassimeres, Scotch cheviots, etc., and fit them and finish them in truly "plate" styles. The long double and single breasted sacks and the new "dove" fall cutaways. Try on any and as many as you like till you are satisfied. Plenty to try. You can walk right in to a perfect fit in our stock of ready made clothes.

Give the boys and children a taste of your satisfaction by letting them wear our clothing. None can be better—none cheaper.
